Foreword

Perhaps an ideal representation of the Central Missouri State campus enters the College Union daily. As the hub of campus life, the Union represents a variety to the varied.

In reflection of campus pride, ideals, and goals, the Union, with its architectural splendor, typifies the growth and beauty of the campus.

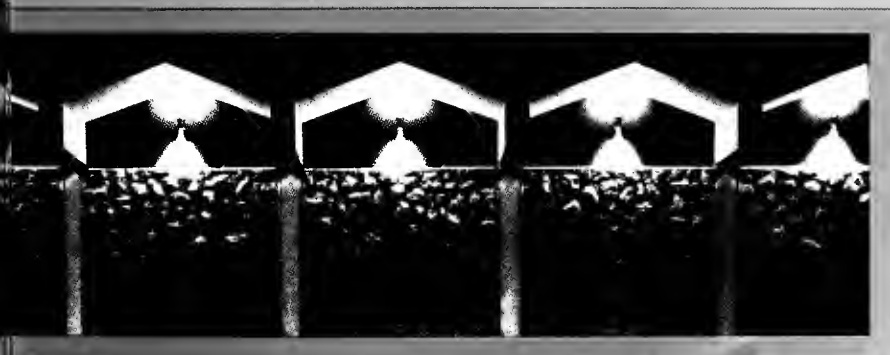

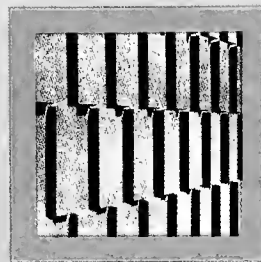

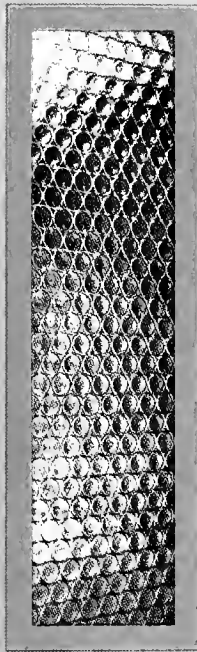

Here in a unifying structure, one can find the security of campus oneness. This one place may meet the needs of any one student—be it one need or several.

A home away from home for campus residents and even commuters, the Union shelters—and is a shelter. In addition, the Union is security among friends. But it is an escape, too.

The Union, as a core of information, receives and transmits calendars of activities to the student body.

In essence, the College Union provides the opportunities to: stimulate student-college identification, rally in campus activities, exert an impression of oneness on the campus, and continue “molding processes.”

Years of service personified in Rhetor dedication

Throughout the twenty-two years that Irvin L. Peters has served Central Missouri State College, he has earned, many times over, the name—Mr. CMSC. His untiring loyalty to the college can be seen across the campus. His service is felt by students, faculty, and administration alike, even though his position presents activities that sometimes place him behind the scenes.

Dean Peters was born at Clarence, Iowa, but he has lived in Warrensburg for almost a quarter of a century. He, his wife, Edna, and his daughter, Patricia, make their home at 701 Clark in Warrensburg.

Dean Peters was educated at Cornell College, Iowa; Drake University, B.S., 1932, M.S., 1936; Butler University; Iowa State College; and Columbia University, where he did special study.

Dean Peters holds membership in various professional organizations: Phi Delta Kappa; Kappa Delta Pi; National Education Association; Missouri State Teacher's Association; Central Science Association; State Historical Society of Iowa; Missouri State Historical Society; Adult Education Association; National Geographic Society; American Association of School Administrators; and the Missouri Association of School Administrators. He is listed in WHO'S WHO IN IOWA; WHO'S WHO IN THE MID-WEST; INTERNATIONAL BLUEBOOK; LEADERS IN EDUCATION; WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA; WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN EDUCATION; WHO'S WHO AND WHY IN MISSOURI; and PRESIDENTS AND DEANS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES.

Dean Peters' position as Dean of Administration presents responsibility for the general business phases of the college program, for the administration of plant development and maintenance and for all auxiliary enterprises, which include such things as the College Union and dormitory facilities.

Dean Peters has a vital interest in every phase of college life and especially in the students. When asked for his advice to college students he replied, "As for advice, I really haven't any to give; I can learn more receiving advice from others. I do hope, though, that every CMS student will experience much of the fun, the challenge, and the gratification which I have had in approximately thirty years on college campuses, as a student, in the military, and as a faculty member."

"Dedication to a college or university is the most exciting, far-ranging and, I believe, satisfying experience that our society offers."

Dean Peters has given his devotion, a great part of his life, and most of all, his service to Central Missouri State College. It is because of this outstanding service that the 1966-67 RHETOR is proudly and appropriately dedicated to IRVIN L. PETERS.

Blue prints and architectural renderings require inspection by Dean Peters.

A coin-collecting hobby occupies some of the Dean's time.

A tour of the new Union leads to a comment by the architect about an unusual glass panel.

Dean Peters enjoys company of wife, Edna, and daughter, Patricia, in their home at 701 Clark.

Preceding an inside tour of the new College Union addition, Dean Peters and James Mantel, architect, admire the outside effect of the entire Union.

Winter wonderland designed for CMS

in snow storm setting

with ice frosting

Glistening limbs break and glittering boughs bend low under the mid-winter ice and snow.

If there is a nature setting that enhances a campus, awes the inhabitants, and inspires an after-impression, the snow storm with an ice frosting must be that setting. Following a blowing snow storm around CMS, an ice covering calmed but magnified the snow spectacle.

Original landscaping of the campus intensified. Flora, edifices, enclosures increased in dimension, shade, effect. In a new perspective, physical characteristics with a covering created unsuspected grandeur.

Upon stepping out into a white, glimmering world, students' awe characterized universal wonderment. Individuals on campus, however, saw a familiar scene in fantasy and gazed in marvel. An everyday environment metamorphosed into a rare winter stage for college life and action.

Only pictures of the wonderland physically remain, but in visions of students there remain vivid remembrances of the phantasm. To each student, this reoccurrent image may be different, but surely it does reoccur.

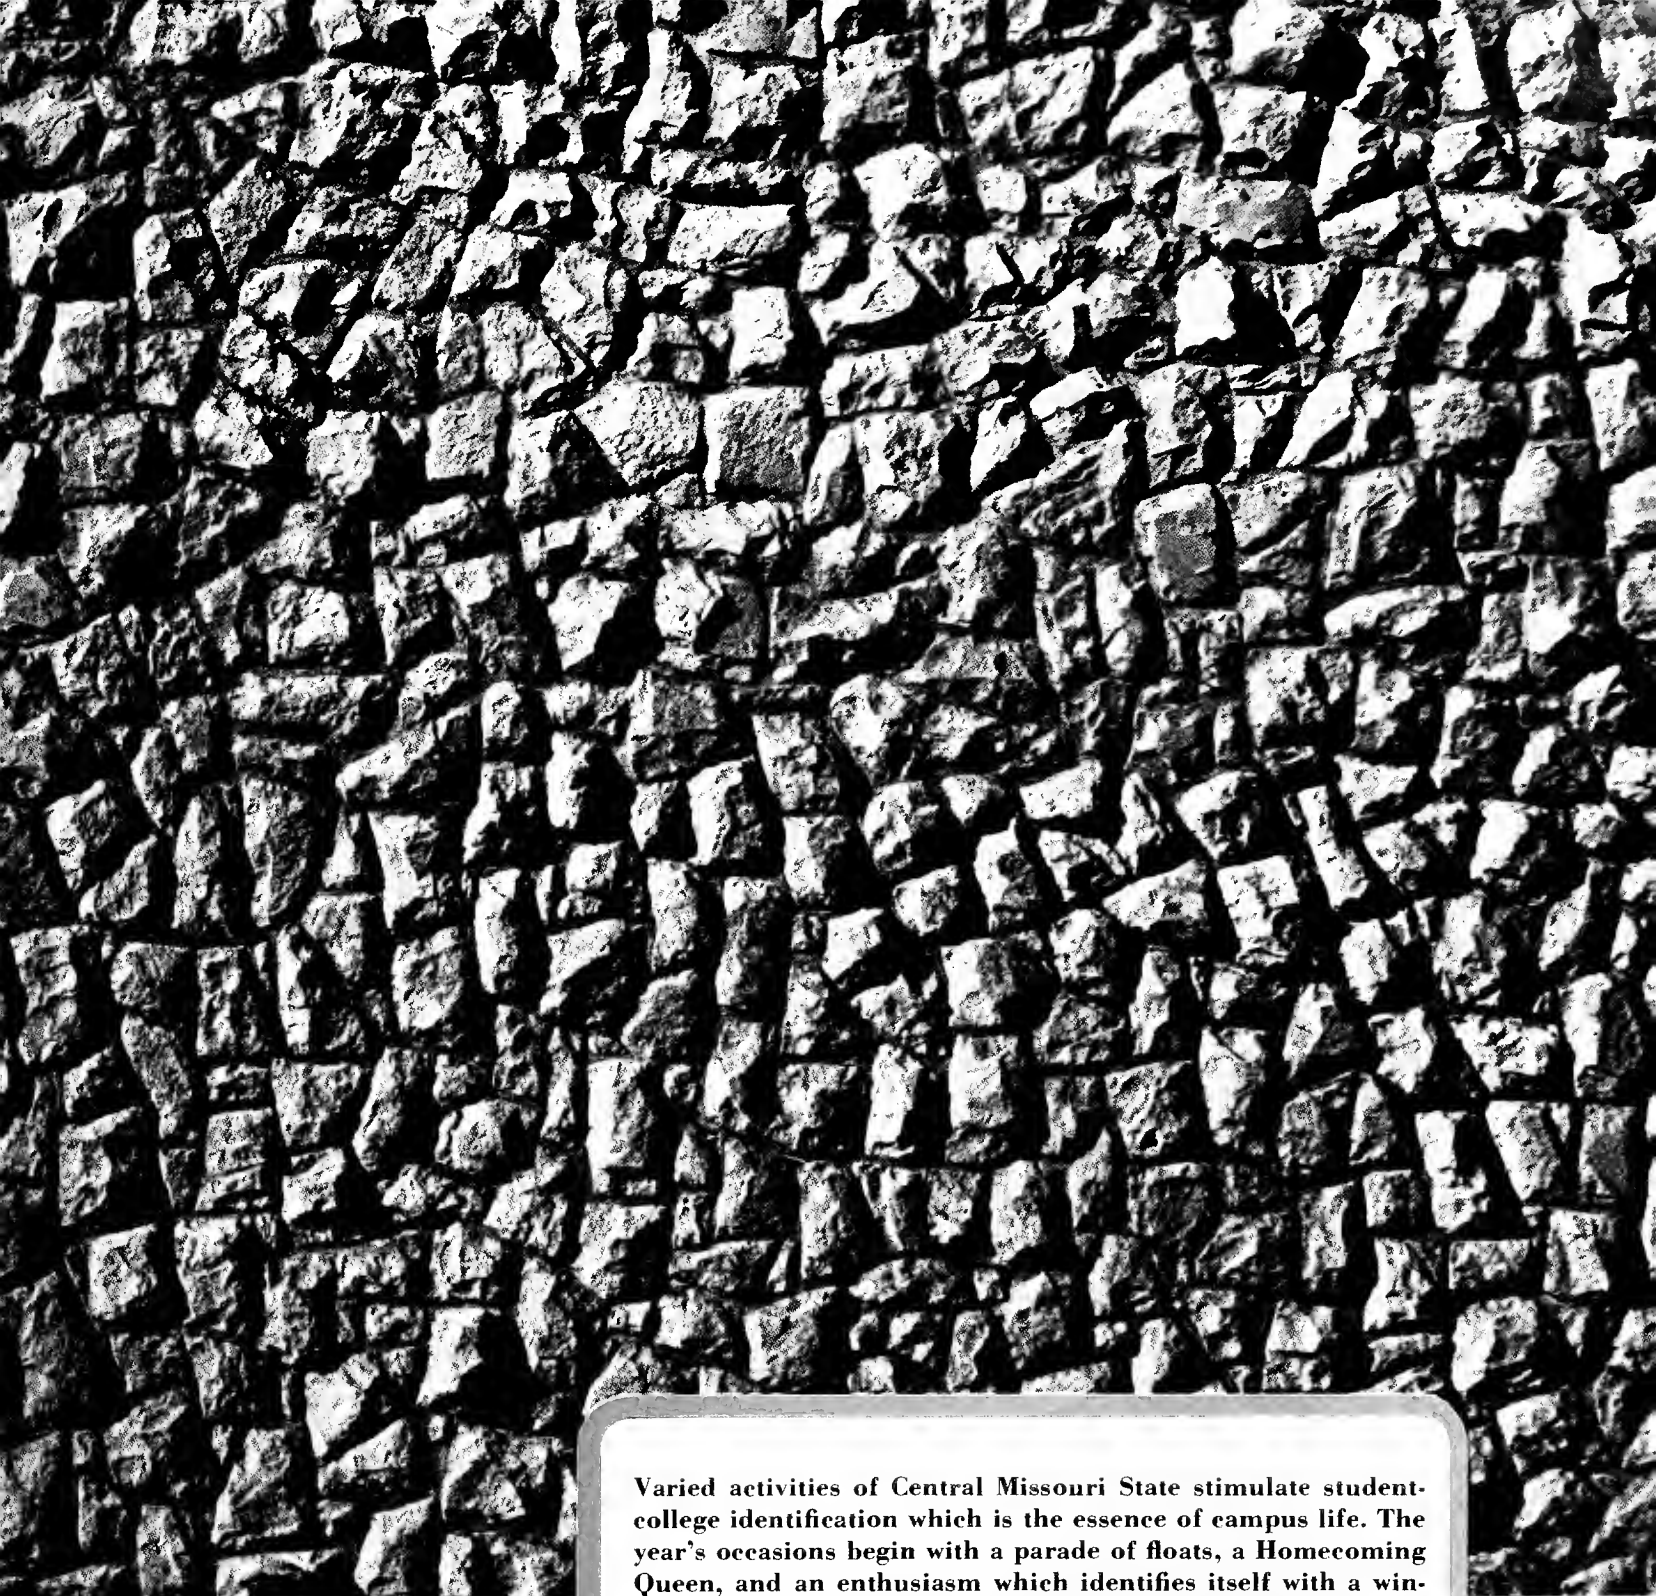

Yes, the snow storm and ice frosting must be that nature setting.

An icy fairyland greets early-morning risers strolling to classes.

Varied activities of Central Missouri State stimulate student-college identification which is the essence of campus life. The year's occasions begin with a parade of floats, a Homecoming Queen, and an enthusiasm which identifies itself with a winning team. The Yuletide Season inspires the sophisticated elegance of a Christmas formal and the humble reverence of midnight vespers. Drama brings the nervously-anticipating and the hopeful. The nervous demand a response; the hopeful expect a stimulation. A year's activities, be it Union or any other, provide a quality for today and prelude a spirit remaining forever.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming projects a campus cartoon carnival

The Homecoming parade, featuring over one hundred entries, including forty-five high school bands, was highlighted by floats exhibiting comic strip characters. Sigma Kappa, with "Mickey Mouse" as the theme, placed first in the sorority float division. Sigma Tau Gamma captured the top honor in the off-campus division with their "Pepe Le Pew." Lambda Chi Alpha won the fraternity house decoration contest with a gigantic "Slyvester the Cat."

The combined efforts of many campus organizations produced an elaborate celebration. Homecoming, 1966, was the largest, in both participation and attendance, in the history of Central Missouri State College.

Sadie Hawkins Day is a time when the student can demonstrate the spontaneity and individuality of his youth. The Union is filled with laughter, singing, and impromptu stunts. The order of the day is cut-offs and sweat-shirts as relaxation and spring fever sweep the campus. Instructors face almost empty classrooms, perhaps enjoying the nonconformity when cutting is planned and expected.

Sadie Hawkins Day is a time when the conscientious adults of tomorrow kindle the spark of youth which will remain because of the memory.

Talent displayed in Revue and in new Union Ballroom

CMS Variety Revue initially opened the newly-completed College Union Ballroom January 26—27.

Sponsored by the College Union, the Revue introduced an array of campus talent. From the exotics of a Hindu dance; the calm of a standard ballad, "Ebb Tide;" the culture of "Opus 1 G Major No. 23;" to the ruckus of a rock'n'roll group — Variety Revue 1967 offered what it promised: an assortment of talent.

RHETOR Queen Banquet honors twelve candidates

Discussions revealing views on college life, world affairs, and modern culture and philosophy assisted judges in choosing a 1967 RHETOR queen.

Twelve queen candidates had 15-minute interviews with three judges on the afternoon of the annual RHETOR queen banquet. And, at the steak dinner banquet that evening, each contestant answered a serious question and a humorous question. Off-campus attire was worn by candidates to the interviews and a formal dress to the banquet.

The three judges were Mrs. Joe Cagna, Mrs. Ralph Granneman, and Mr. Cliff Lash.

On March 18, the RHETOR Queen was crowned and reigned over the Rhetor Ball.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

sponsors 1967 UMOG

Seventeenth annual UMOG contest, sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, featured a new event this year. The first UMOG carnival was held, in which such attractions as pie-throwing contests and kissing booths were sponsored by various campus organizations. The highlight of the evening was the introduction by song of the Ugly Man and Beauty Queen candidates.

In addition to the carnival, an ice-carving contest was held in which candidates chopped on 100-pound blocks of ice; and a car-smashing event was also held.

The highlight of the UMOG drive was the semi-formal ball at which the contest winners were announced. Jay Bob Estes, Theta Chi, won 1967 Ugliest Man on Campus, and Sudie Spivey, Alpha Sigma Alpha, was crowned 1967 Beauty Queen. The Theta Chi's collected $3,421 of a total of $5,516 collected on campus.

CEMO popularity contest

Sponsoring CEMO, the all-school popularity contest, the SGA presented its candidates to the student body at a basketball game. At a concert-sock hop held in Garrison Gymnasium on February 10, Steve Witkowski, Tau Kappa Epsilon, was chosen as Mr. CEMO, and Chris Roose, Alpha Sigma Alpha, as Miss CEMO of CMS. Bob Gillum, Alpha Kappa Lambda, and Julie Shotwell, Sigma Sigma Sigma, were first runners-up, followed by Lonnie Billard, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Patty Templeton, Sigma Kappa, as second runners-up.

Two professional performing groups, The Argyles and The Vogues, were featured at the CEMO dance.

Mr. CEMO, Steve Witkowski, Tau Kappa Epsilon, joins Chris Roose, Alpha Sigma Alpha, Miss CEMO, in admiring the winners' plaques they received at the dance.

Providing the latest music for the CEMO dance, The Hollywood Argyles began an evening of enjoyment. At two different intervals, The Vogues provided a concert with their great vocal talents, including their most popular hits, "You're the One," "Five O'Clock World," "Magic Town," "Land of Milk and Honey," and "That's the Tune."

In July, Va Van Thai, Vietnam ambassador, spoke at CMS.

Famous people visit CMS campus throughout '66-'67

Throughout the year international figures and entertainers have added memorable highlights to the CMS schedule.

To help bring the news fronts of the world to CMS, as well as enlighten students on current world affairs, such speakers as Mohammad T. Mehdi of Iraq, Farham Shubeilat of Jordan, Avahan Harmon of Israel, Ibrahim El-Ahdab of Lebanon, and Maxwell Taylor addressed campus organizations.

General Maxwell Taylor, for example, spoke to a capacity crowd as he emphasized reasons why the U.S. was in Vietnam and what the U.S. was doing there at the time to obtain the objectives of securing free elections for the South Vietnamese.

The world of entertainment posed an interesting contrast to the area of politics and international relations. The Serendipity Singers started the year with an evening of quick-witted and light-hearted entertainment. "Half A Sixpence," a Broadway musical, was also presented here.

To round out the year, The Singing Hoosiers of Indiana University presented a spectacular performance. The outstanding group appeared with selections drawn from the best of Broadway and from the popular and folk music fields.

CMS students and faculty eagerly attended a personal appearance by General Maxwell Taylor as he stressed reasons why the U.S. was in Vietnam.

HALF A SIXPENCE arrives from Broadway

With Broadway practice in "Half A Sixpence," Kenneth Nelson as Arthur Kipps leads a dance routine.

Following a successful two-year run, first in London and again on Broadway, "Half A Sixpence" played in Warrensburg on Sunday, October 9, at Hendricks Hall. Stated by Dr. Harold Young, director of field services, to be "the largest production we've ever had at CMS," the touring musical hit included a company of 53, a cast of 29, an orchestra of 13, and a $30,000 wardrobe.

Kenneth Nelson, Broadway dancer, portrayed Arthur Kipps, a charming Cockney lad who jumped from working class to upper class and back again in the midst of turn-of-the-century England. Nelson is also known for his roles in the Broadway hits, "Seventeen," "The Fantasticks," and "Willy Baxter." Backing him was an outstanding troupe including Byron Webster, Collette Melville, Marianne McAndrews, and Gayle Sheppard.

In addition to several dances, such tunes as "Money to Burn," "If the Rain's Got to Fall," "All in the Cause of Economy," "Half a Sixpence," and "I'll Build a Palace" were featured in the musical play which was directed by Fred Herbert.

"Half A Sixpence" was co-sponsored by the SGA and the convocation committee.

A CMS audience saw dances and musical numbers originally staged and choreographed by Onna White.

Kipps and Pornick portray a dramatic moment.

CMS Theatre presents CHARLEY'S AUNT

The delightful antics of Brandon Thomas' Charley's Aunt were presented by the CMS Theatre in a spring '66 production.

From the straw hat circuit to Broadway, the light-weight comedy has delighted audiences both as legitimate theatre and as a musical comedy starring Ray Bolger in Where's Charley. In the old Lyceum circuits, in tents, or in conventional theatre, numerous companies have revised the play from Maine to Texas.

A crowd-pleaser for generations, the famous farce provided CMS audiences with an evening of old-fashioned fun.

Attesting to its 65 years in the theatre, Charley's Aunt is considered a theatrical gem.

General St. Pe' delighted CMS theatre-goers with his flirtatiousness in the October 18-21 production of Jean Anouilh's The Waltz of the Toreadors, a French-born play.

The romantic escapades of the rogue general from his invalid wife extend beyond the limits of the comedy that it is.

As General St. Pe' sneaks in and around corners, connives, encourages, and chases women through his house — Anouilh in the wit and genius of his generation, subtly intimates the roots of a deeper meaning. French dramatist that he is, Anouilh quietly suggests the general's roving fancies are initiated by his need to escape old age and an unbearable reality. For, according to the author, loving or understanding anyone exposes one to an insufferable heartache. General St. Pe' escapes such an agony by becoming a chaser.

As The Waltz of the Toreadors comically crosses the stage, it drops subtle hints — serious suggestions worthy of consideration.

Mme. St. Pe': "So you ransack a lady's drawers, do you my lad?"

Mlle. de Ste. Euverte to General St. Pe': "Had he so much as touched the hem of my dress, I would have slain him first and myself afterwards — I had to get to you intact."

Traditional custom lights campus for '66 Christmas

From the first day back after Thanksgiving, until the last day of school before vacation, the spirit of Christmas filled the air at Central Missouri State. Organizations planned and carried out yuletide activities, while at the same time, many students were joyously anticipating their first days at home in many months.

After members of the College Union Cabinet decorated the campus in festive attire, the Christmas season was officially opened by the annual Christmas tree lighting ceremony in front of the Administration Building.

Then, throughout the following weeks, organizations held caroling parties and banquets; many groups presented concerts; and fraternities and sororities engaged in special projects such as giving parties for under-privileged children and aiding needy families.

The Association of Women Students' annual door-decorating contest and open house held in the girls' dorms and the annual Christmas formal sponsored by the College Union highlighted the campus holiday season.

Christmas expectations draw campus crowd for tree lighting ceremony.

SGA President, Bob Johnson, acted as emcee for the tree lighting.

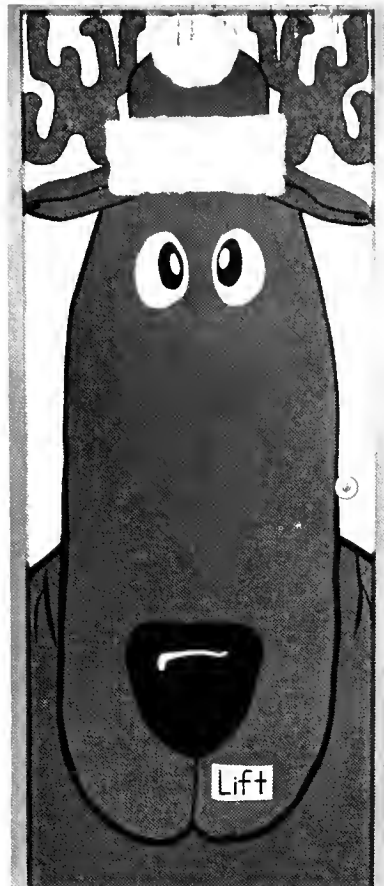

Dr. Lovinger instilled the Christmas spirit with his impressions.

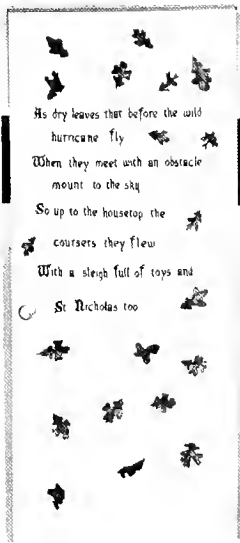

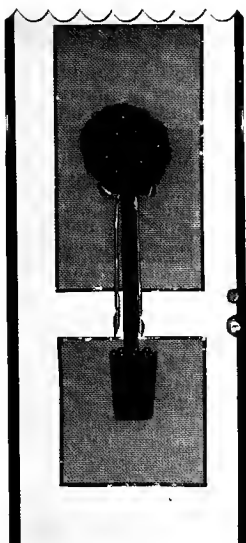

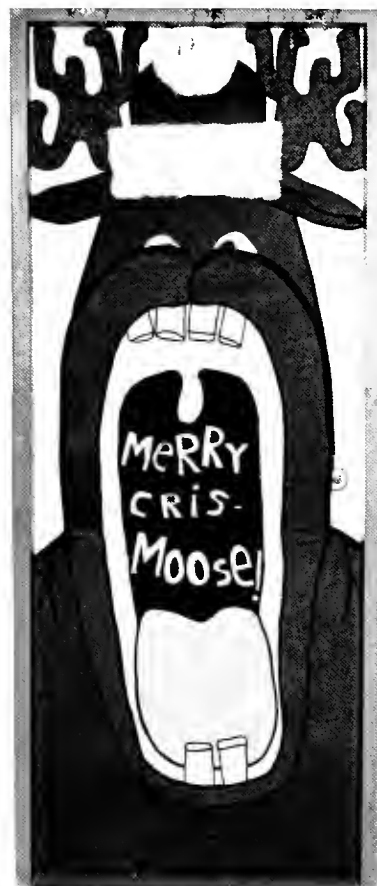

With a prayer, Rev. Dave Johnson created the Christmas spirit.

Following the tree lighting, blended voices in the Greek choir directed by Dan Frederickson added to the Christmas air.

Typical of all womens' dorms, South Yeater hosted an open house for friends and families.

North Ellis Hall

North Ellis provides additional space for men students

Creating a comfortable, homey atmosphere and providing all the facilities of T.V.'s, study lounges, laundry rooms, vending machines, spacious dining rooms, and in some cases, air-conditioning, the nine men's dorms conveniently located on the eastern side of the campus, accommodate approximately 2715 men.

With a five-story addition this year, Ellis Hall is now the new Ellis complex, the largest single dorm for men on campus. Operated as three separate units, each section has a housemother and resident supervisor, yet all three units share one dining room. The air-conditioned complex houses 956 men.

With one, two, three, and four-men rooms, the dorms provide an opportunity for socializing and making friends.

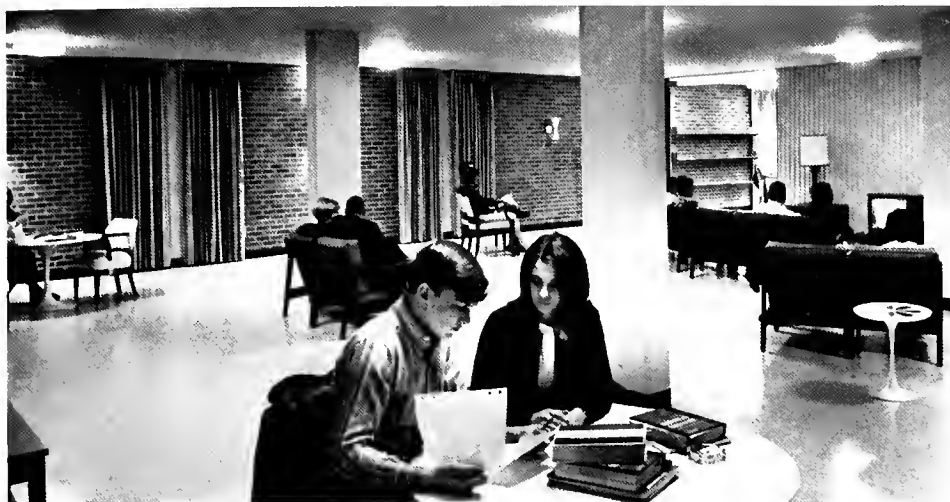

Taking a short break from studying, these co-eds discuss the day's events.

New dorm offers women all the comforts of home

The nine CMS women's dorms, housing approximately 2630 women, provide nearly all the conveniences of home with washers and dryers, T. V. and date lounges, study lounges on each floor, telephones, vending machines, and ironing rooms.

Women students are housed in two or three-person rooms arranged in suites — two rooms joined by a private bath.

The new addition to the women's dormitory, South Yeater, accomodating 396 girls, is equipped with a new type of communication—the intercom system. Instead of each girl having a buzzer code as in the other dorms, the intercom system enables the switchboard operator to talk directly to the girls in the room. Also, with this system, messages and announcements can be presented to the whole dorm at one time.

South Yeater Hall furnishes a spacious combination T.V.-study lounge area.

Modern facilities aid married students' convenience

Providing comfortable, roomy living quarters, modern Hawkins Hall is conveniently located on the western edge of the campus across from Vernon Kennedy Stadium.

The furnished one and two-bedroom units are equipped with laundry facilities and central air-conditioning and each apartment contains a living room, kitchenette, and spacious closets.

Greenwood Park, the newest accomodation for married students on campus, offers superior facilities including comfortably furnished apartments and sleeping accomodations for four or five. In addition, its location provides for convenience in the use of campus facilities.

Additional housing units for married students are provided in the Westlawn Apartments.

Providing 52 apartments, Hawkins Hall is located adjacent to the campus.

The Acappella Choir's performance of the Christmas Concert was directed by Dr. Hart.

Variety of music concerts entertain CMS students

The Central Missouri State music department offered quite a variety of concerts this year. There were many student and faculty recitals — an all-Stravinsky program was presented in April by a combination student-faculty group.

The Acappella Choir presented several concerts — two performances of the Christmas Concert and the Religious Emphasis Week Concert. Once during winter term and once spring term, the Orchestra, directed by Dr. Hugh Williams, performed in concert in Recital Hall. Membership of the Orchestra is approximately 40 to 45. The ten-voice Madrigal group sang for the Combined Federated Clubs of Warrensburg as well as participated in a concert tour.

Every Tuesday afternoon, various instrumental and vocal programs were presented by CMS students; and evening recitals were presented by seniors and graduates completing degrees.

Mr. William Callen was on tour for two days this year with the Essig Collection of Rare Instruments.

In addition to the Women's Chorus directed by Dr. Daniel Scott, a Male's Chorus was started for the first time this fall by Dr. Ralph Hart. Also new this year was an opera workshop. The members of this group presented various operas and opera scenes throughout the year.

Kansas City Philharmonic returns to CMS.

In its 34th season, the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra performed before a CMS audience in Hendricks Hall on February 9. Under the direction of Hans Schwieger for more than half its history, the ensemble has stood consistently in the forefront of the nation's great symphony orchestras.

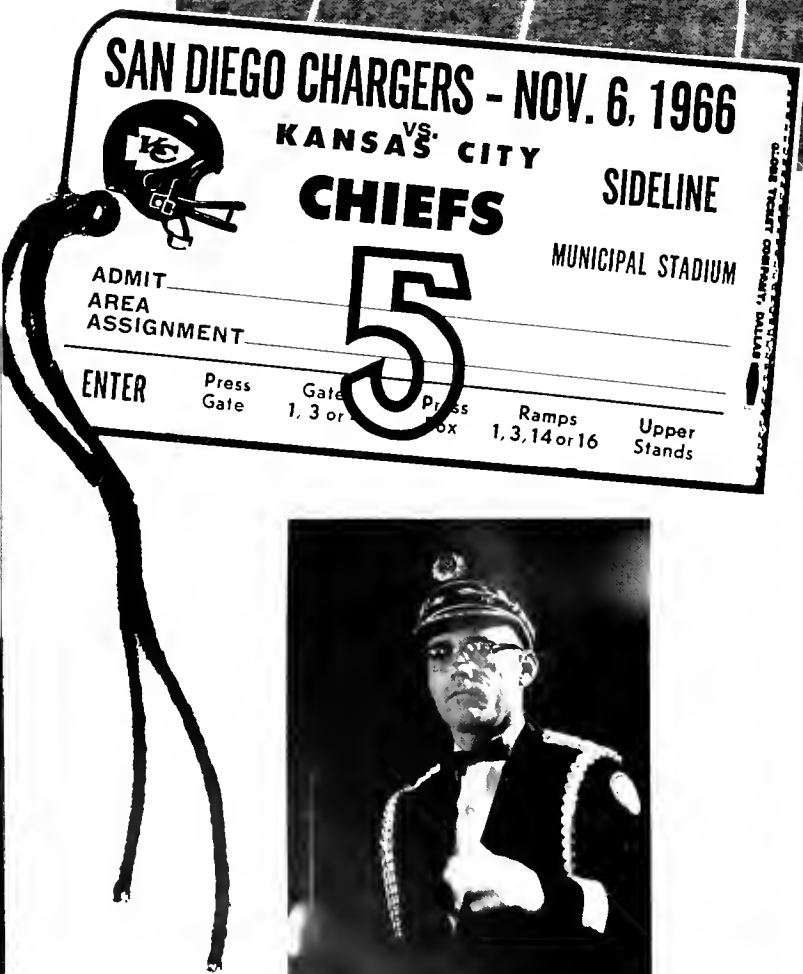

Consisting of 90 players, the Orchestra gives its main subscription series of concerts in the Music Hall of Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium. Two completely new specialized concert series include the "Connoisseur Concerts" and the youth concerts. And the Philharmonic is also featured on the Kansas City hour, a series of regular weekly radio and television programs.

CMS marching band performs for K.C. major league teams

Supporting the Mules at all home football games and appearing at the Mules vs. the Hornets game at Emporia, Kansas, the CMS Marching Band performed for the 1966-67 school year. The "Marching Mules" also led this year's mile-long Homecoming parade; during the Homecoming game's half-time show, they combined with 45 visiting high school bands to play selections from "The Sound of Music."

One of the year's highlights occurred when the CMS band made its second guest appearance for the Kansas City Chiefs and performed during the pre-game and half-time shows of the nationally-televised Chiefs vs. San Diego game on November 6. The performance saluted the Kansas City Chiefs, as well as Chief fans. For the second consecutive year they also performed for the K.C. Athletics' opening game.

This year's band consisting of 120 members and being directed by Russ Coleman, also presented several concerts on tour. Frank Burkhead, a senior in his third year as drum major, led the four twirlers, Sharon Hilgedick, the head twirler, Linda Burton, Karen Seward, and Connie White.

Nursing students honored at convocation

A student nurse dedicates herself to a challenging profession of service to others.

Seventeen nursing candidates were presented at the annual Nursing Convocation on December 4, 1966, in the Alumni Memorial Chapel. Following a welcome by President Lovinger, Clara C. Books of the Division of Health of Missouri gave an inspiration message to the candidates and their families and friends.

The candidates, having been admitted to the nursing program, publically dedicated themselves to the nursing profession during this ceremony, this being their first official occasion to wear their nurses' uniforms.

Clara C. Books shares her personal nursing experiences.

Noted speakers highlight Religious Emphasis Week

A convocation, a concert, a film, discussions, panels, and luncheons, were all a part of the year's Religious Emphasis Week. Religious Emphasis Week projected the theme, "Would You Believe?" Under the direction of Miss Helen Gilbert, director of recreation, and James Ogan, student chairman of religious activities, the week's activities started January 29.

Dr. George C. Baker, professor of Evangelism at Southern Methodist University's Perkins School of Theology, gave the keynote address centering around the theme. In addition to Dr. Baker, other guest speakers included Father Lawrence Guillot and Rabbi Avery Grossfield, as well as local ministers. Rabbi Grossfield and Father Guillot joined Dr. Baker in residence hall discussions, panel discussions, and dinner lectures throughout the week. "Ethical Humanism and the Resurrection of God" was the highlight of Father Guillot's talk at the faculty luncheon forum in the College Union.

Throughout the week, the Union exhibited a collection of religious books from the Kansas City Baptist Book Store. However, the climax of the week's activities were the classroom and residence halls' discussions. The discussions were entertaining and informative and benefited all who participated in the activities.

Dr. Baker captures students' interest while lecturing in the chapel.

Guest speakers, Miss Gilbert, and students meet to plan and discuss the activities of Religious Emphasis Week.

Rhetor staff chooses College Union for 1967 theme

Joyce Schumaker, Editor

The RHETOR, Central Missouri State's annual yearbook, captures the highlights of college life and holds them as the memories of tomorrow. Rhetor, the Greek name for teacher, is appropriate because the yearbook reminds the reader of the importance of his college years.

As the years pass, the RHETOR changes as it adds new features and improvements with each issue. The 1966-67 RHETOR has many unique characteristics, a few of which include a cover which supports a gold metal-lay of the College Union fountain on a textured background of Mediterranean blue, with a deep blue rub, and division pages which are in duotone, simulating the cover and using actual photos of a stone wall of the Union. The College Union is the central theme of the 1967 RHETOR. The endsheets are four-color reproductions of the College Union fountain taken at night. The photography for the RHETOR was by Mel Jenkins, Don Fagg, and student photographer, Ricky Kuhn.

These interesting improvements have been made in an attempt to receive a higher national rating, as well as to please the student body.

Business manager, Mike Swartz, discusses the cost of a weekly ad with a local merchant.

Variety of operations produce campus weekly, The Student

News gathering student reporters are only the outward sign of the involved process of publishing THE STUDENT; beyond the re-writing, editing, and proofreading tasks of the staff, lies a fascinating operation seen by few people. THE STUDENT passes through several stages of development, including varityping, stripping, photographing pages, opaquing, masking, plate making, printing, folding, and assembling before the final product comes out every Friday.

Prexy Club and College Union Cabinet serve student organizational, campus activity needs

One of the many organizations on Central Missouri State College campus is the Prexy Club. The Prexy Club is made up of the presidents or heads of all organizations, from the dormitory presidents to Warren C. Lovinger, President of CMSC. The Prexy Club holds meetings regularly, which follow a student-suggested agenda.

The Prexy Club enlightens both the President and students on matters concerning campus activities and problems.

Sponsoring many of the activities on the campus this year, the Union Cabinet fulfilled its purpose of helping the students in social, educational, and recreational aspects of college. They have sponsored such things as the Breckenridge ski trip, dances, college tournaments in bowling, table tennis, bridge, and pool.

This year the officers are: Bob Gillum, president; Janet Downing, vice-president; and Joy Pelton, secretary.

PHI SIGMA PI — The Alpha chapter of Phi Sigma Pi, a national honorary fraternity in the field of education, originated at CMSC in February, 1916. Its purpose is to develop a kindly and courageous personality, a high ethical character, a deep understanding of and skill in dealing with people, and a well-organized field of knowledge among selected scholars. This year, activities include representation by president Mike Jinks at the 50th Anniversary of Phi Sigma Pi's Biennial National Convention in Washington, D.C., participations in the Homecoming parade, sponsorship of Bill Michael, a folksinger, who appeared in concert on the campus, and decoration of the College Union for Christmas. Sponsors of the fraternity are Dr. Clark Morton and Dr. Harold Young.

Serious and social functions form effective groups

DELTA TAU ALPHA — Delta Tau Alpha, a national honorary society in the field of agriculture, received its charter on the CMSC campus in April, 1965. Dr. Milford Quimby sponsors the organization whose purposes are to promote and recognize high standards of scholarship, leadership, and character among agriculture students, to encourage and foster high ethical standards, to promote the profession of agriculture, and to render service and co-operation to the student body. Initiation into Delta Tau Alpha is based on a 3.0 grade point average in all completed agriculture courses, good character, and leadership.

Members of Delta Tau Alpha discuss plans for the 1966-67 school year.

Wesley students use finger painting for relaxation at an informal meeting.

WESLEY FOUNDATION — Wesley Foundation is the ministry of the Methodist church on the college campus. It provides an opportunity for worship and discussion of both religious and academic problems and encourages students to take their vocations as Christian students seriously. Forum meetings on Sunday evenings, small discussions, and study groups meet during the year. Wesley members attend local and state retreats and conferences. This year's fall retreat at Knob Noster State Park was the first held with other religious groups which are engaged with Wesley Foundation in a new ecumenical ministry.

CHESS CLUB — The Chess Club's main purpose is to promote the playing of chess. Chess provides a challenge for its players as well as providing hours of fun. Some of the functions directed toward this objective have been to provide local chess tournaments, chess lectures, and the best equipment available. Accomplishments of the Chess Club include winning second place at the Regional Chess Tournament at Kansas University in 1966 and establishing the annual CMSC championships. The Chess Club is sponsored by the College Union.

In an important chess game, Garry Grau and Bill Estill are timed by judge Wayne Berry.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION — Approximately 550 students participate in the program of the Baptist Student Union. Highlights of the year include participation in two retreats — one at Knob Noster State Park and one on the Lake of the Ozarks. The BSU supplies churches with student revival teams and presents concerts with a 50-member choir. At the Baptist Chair of Bible, eleven hours of credit in Bible are taught by Dr. Curtis A. Hutcherson. Social activities include Homecoming, Christmas, Sweetheart Banquet, and a reception for International students at CMS. For the second year, BSU house decorations for Homecoming won first place in the off campus organization division.

The young daughter of a BSU member helps trim the tree at the Christmas party.

Organizations depict all phases of campus interests

PI OMEGA PI — Pi Omega Pi, a national honor society in business education, was organized to promote interest in scholarship achievements, to give aid in civic betterment of schools, and to encourage high ethical standards in business and professional life. Membership is based on a 3.0 grade average in business and education courses. Activities of Beta Rho chapter include publishing POPCORN, the annual alumnae newsletter, and sponsoring a tea for the business faculty and a Christmas party.

Members finish preparing POPCORN, a newsletter sent to members and alumnae.

The UCCF officers discuss the possibility of purchasing a camera for the club.

UNITED CAMPUS CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP — United Campus Christian Fellowship is made up of over 800 students of Christian, Presbyterian, United Church of Christ, Evangelical United Brethren, and American Baptist affiliation. Through the year, UCCF sponsors programs, picnics, state and local conferences and retreats, and a complete worship program including monthly Communion. UCCF officers are: Gary McCarty, President; Pam McKinnie, Vice-President; Bob Rethemeyer, Treasurer; John Wyss, Program Chairman; Charlene Hofstetter, Worship; and Cass Tingler, Publicity. The Campus Minister is the Reverend David J. Johnson.

Jeanne Donius, president, shows the fraternity crest to other members.

KAPPA KAPPA KAPPA — The Tri Kaps of CMSC is an organization which is open to any girls who are interested in nursing. The main function of this organization is to keep the nursing majors informed about the new developments in their field. Tri Kaps also has a chapter at Menorah Medical Center in Kansas City, Missouri, and it has a membership of twenty. In February of 1966, CMSC had reason to be very proud of the three student nurses who were elected to offices in our district organization. They were Ann Achauer, Sharon Hamilton, and Karen Talbot. Tri Kaps is under the direction of Mrs. Whiteside and their president is Miss Sheryl Seeley.

Miss Karen Talbot was installed as first vice-president in MSSNA.

Lighted candles signify the transfer of heritage at the annual initiation ceremony.

DELTA PSI KAPPA — Delta Psi Kappa is a national professional fraternity for women physical education majors. The Beta Gamma chapter was established on the CMSC campus in 1963. The purpose of the organization is to further the aims and ideals of the profession. Scholastic requirements for membership include a 2.25 overall accumulative grade point average in courses of the division of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. The President is Jeanne Donius, and the organization's sponsor is Dr. Jessie B. Jutten.

KAPPA DELTA PI — Kappa Delta Pi is a national honorary for scholars, both graduate and undergraduate, in teacher education with any academic major or an Elementary Education major. The purpose of Kappa Delta Pi is to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards and to recognize outstanding contributions to education.

Rho chapter has one hundred and sixty-five active members, including faculty members, graduate students and undergraduate students. Dr. Eugene R. Keffer is Counselor and Dr. Bernice Lamb is Co-Counselor of the chapter.

The program of Rho chapter promotes social growth through social activities and intellectual stimulation through engaging outstanding educators to speak to the members.

Sponsors live up to their promise of a cider and donut party as a reward for building up club membership.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB — The Industrial Arts Club is one of the major organizations on campus with over 230 members. Each year the club sponsors a number of activities including a cider party, a Homecoming float, a fall banquet, field trips to various industries in central western Missouri, and a spring steak fry held at Pertle Springs. Fund raising projects of the club consist of operating a concession stand and manufacturing pledge paddles for the Greek organizations. Dr. Eldon Young is the faculty sponsor.

Group goals and ideals demand active participation

CWENS — The Psi chapter of CWENS, an honorary sophomore organization for women was established on the CMS campus on May 9, 1965. As a service organization, CWENS act as "big sisters" to all freshmen women by welcoming them to the campus, moving them into the dorms, and informing them of coming activities. CWENS also assisted in the UMKC Uplift Program by guiding tours on the campus for under-privileged girls to create an interest in college, caroled in the freshmen women's dorms at Christmas, attended a national convention, and planned bi-monthly programs. Each spring, freshmen women who have shown outstanding leadership abilities and above average scholastic achievement are tapped to become members of CWENS. Formal initiation is held later that spring.

Members and sponsors discuss art plans for CEMOST, their annual publication.

PEM CLUB — Pem Club is a professional organization for women physical education majors and minors affiliated with the State and National Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. Meetings are held once a month and are of a professional nature such as panel discussions and guest speakers in related fields. Investigation of different areas available in the profession, an alumni luncheon, and a trip to the national AAHPER convention, held in Las Vegas this year, are some special projects of Pem Club. Dr. Alphadine Martin sponsors the Club.

Miss Martin, sponsor, pours punch for members at a Christmas tea.

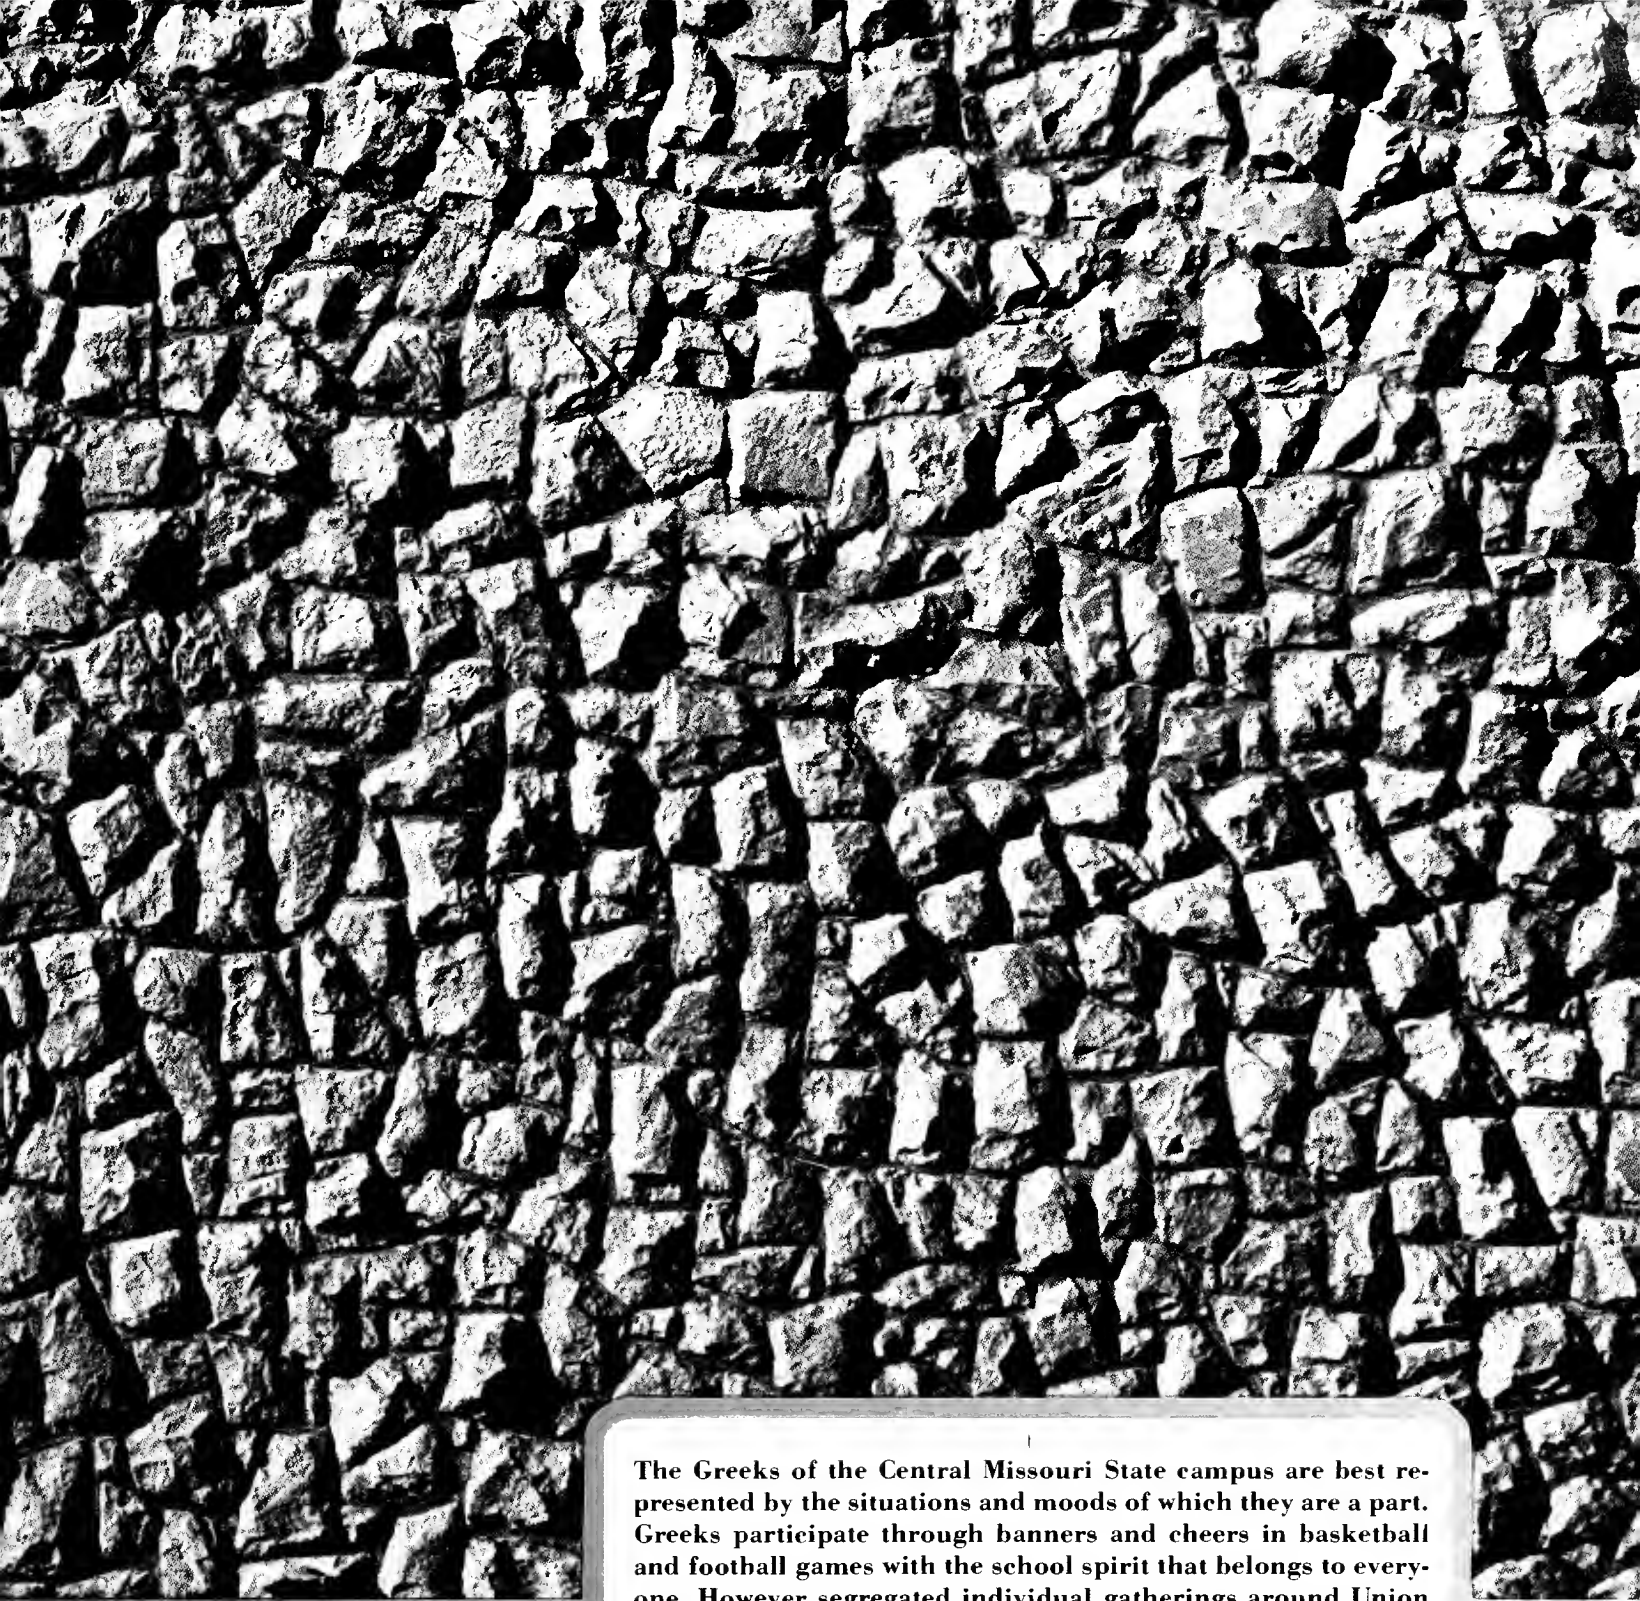

The fall pledges add their names to the membership during the October installation service.

SIGMA TAU DELTA — Sigma Tau Delta is a national honorary English fraternity. Gamma Theta chapter was begun 43 years ago at CMSC. Advancing the study of the chief literary masterpieces, encouraging worthwhile reading, and promoting the mastery of written expression are the purposes of the fraternity. Membership is open to English majors and minors with a 3.0 grade point average in English courses and a 2.5 overall grade point average. The honorary is limited to 25 members. Each year Sigma Tau Delta publishes CEMOST, a literary and artistic magazine, and a newsletter which is sent to sponsors, members, and alumni. Dr. Frank Patterson sponsors the fraternity.

ALPHA PHI DELTA — Alpha Phi Delta, originated in March, 1919, as Phi Delta Delta, the first organization in this college to recognize scholastic attainment among women students. The organization became the Beta chapter of Alpha Phi Delta in 1921. This year, Beta chapter has a membership of more than one-hundred sophomore, junior, and senior women. Membership is based on leadership, personality, and a minimum grade point average of 3.25. The sponsorship of an annual scholarship for a CMS student, initiations held each term, and a spring party to honor all freshmen women with a 3.0 grade point average are some of the activities of the honorary. Dr. Laura Nahm is the sponsor, and Linda Blacksmith is the president.

The Greeks of the Central Missouri State campus are best represented by the situations and moods of which they are a part. Greeks participate through banners and cheers in basketball and football games with the school spirit that belongs to everyone. However segregated individual gatherings around Union tables may seem, Greeks represent a part of the whole that is college society. Greeks rally in anticipation of a Greek event, but when all is prepared, the entire campus rallies with them. Perhaps most important is the mood. To the campus, Greeks are a part of the whole, but to the Greeks ... they are the whole of the part.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

Alpha Gamma Delta stepped into high gear in the 1966-67 school year with a third place trophy in the homecoming convo and a variety of chapter activities including the Rathskeller all-school dance, a spring formal, Feast of Roses, Scholarship-Activities Tea, Homecoming Tea, and spring retreat.

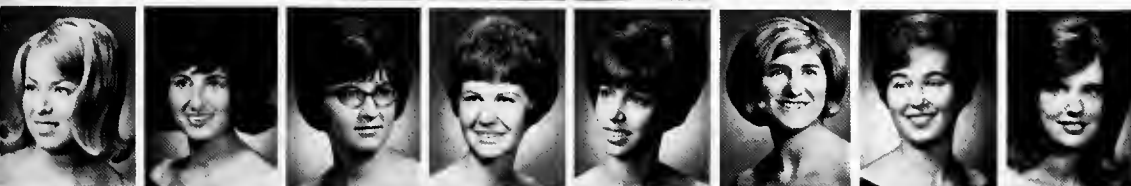

Many Alpha Gams held leadership positions on campus in such organizations as Dolphins, CWENS, Union Cabinet, Women's Recreational Association, Spanish Club, SGA Senate, and Panhellenic Hall.

Active in service projects, the AGD's contributed to the international altruistic projects by adopting a Korean orphan. Community service projects included a Christmas party for the mentally retarded at the Higginsville home, and caroling for the nursing homes in Warrensburg.

Faculty sponsors for Epsilon Lambda chapter this year were Mrs. Sherralyn Craven, Dr. Catherine Titus, Miss Marian Leshner, Miss Florence Young, and Mrs. Monia Morris.

Suzanne Green, Alpha Omicron Pi's Homecoming queen candidate, is presented in a convo theme of "Peppe Le Peu."

ALPHA OMICRON PI

Delta Pi chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi began this year by joining Homecoming festivities with Suzanne Green as queen candidate. Their float, Pepe' le Peau, placed third in the sorority division.

As a national philanthropic project, AOPi supported the social service department of the Frontier Nursing Service. Locally, the chapter sponsored Easter parties, Christmas stockings, and birthday cards for a ward of boys at the Higinville State School and Hospital for the Mentally Retarded.

Many activities kept the Alpha O's busy throughout the year. The annual Founder's Day banquet held in Kansas City celebrated their 70th anniversary. A Homecoming tea, Parent's Picnic, Rose Banquet, Rose Formal, and senior picnic completed the year's activities. Individuals were also busy with SNEA, WRA, Player's Club, and the Council for Exceptional Children.

Faculty sponsors for AOPi were Mrs. Bernice Delaney, Dr. Bessie Elliot, Miss Marilyn Jo Schmidt, and Miss Mary Scott.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

"Dogpatch ASA" launched Alpha Sigma Alpha into homecoming activities and the beginning of a busy year. Mr. Lampe was honored as Most Popular Professor at their "Red Apple" dance in the fall. In celebration of Founder's Day, November 15, the Alphas held their annual banquet with Wilma Wilson Sharp, a CMS graduate and charter member of ASA, as special guest. In addition to campus activities, national philanthropic projects were held for the aid of hospitalized and mentally retarded children through fund-raising projects and hospital visitations.

Rounding out a busy year, chapter activities included a Christmas party, Sweetheart Formal, Valentine's Day Tea, Parent's Day Tea, a senior picnic, and state day trips. Positions of leadership were held by members in such organizations and activities as AWS, Judiciary Board, AWS Assembly, Panhellenic Hall, THE STUDENT, CWENS, and varsity cheerleading.

ALPHA SIGMA TAU

The 1966-67 year was an active one for Alpha Sigma Tau on the CMS campus. Keeping the Taus busy were their Homecoming convocation; the intramural volleyball games, which led to a first-place trophy; the Founder's Day Banquet; rush parties; wiener roasts; and the Yellow Rose Formal.

Individually the Taus brought honors to their sorority by serving as officers in Dolphins, WRA, Delta Psi Kappa, Association for Childhood Education, and Panhellenic Council.

Besides campus activities, the women of Alpha Sigma Tau contributed to the Pine Mountain Settlement School in Pine Mountain, Kentucky, as a service project. The sorority also supported Penland, an internationally known school for the handicapped. Locally, the Taus visited the Pleasantview Nursing Home just outside of Warrensburg.

A Mouseketeer roll-call finds all Sigma Kappas ready to dance their way into a second-place convo skit.

SIGMA KAPPA

Sigma Kappa began this year with Homecoming honors including the second-place convocation trophy, Robin Readecker as the 1966-67 CMSC Homecoming Queen, and first place in the sorority float division. Christmas activities followed with a caroling trip to the Pleasantview Nursing Home and two philanthropic projects for the Maine Sea Coast Missionary Society and Greek Farm School. Sigma Kappa sponsored an all-sorority Christmas tea, also. A fashion show was held in the spring with proceeds going to a campus music scholarship.

The women of Sigma Kappa were also very active in campus activities. Some of these include: RHETOR staff, the Union Cabinet, CWENS, Association of Women Students, Alpha Phi Delta, Alpha Lambda Delta, the CMSC marching band, and Sigma Alpha Eta Speech and Hearing Fraternity. Two Sig Kaps were also chosen as varsity cheerleaders.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Nu chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma sponsored their first fall activity, the annual Purple Pit Dance, to raise funds for children rehabilitation at North Carolina Memorial Hospital. Using the theme "Peanuts," the Sigmas produced the winning convocation skit to introduce their Homecoming queen candidate and also captured second place in float competition. Christmas activities included placing second in the annual door decoration contest and jointly sponsoring a party for underprivileged children with the men of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Sigmas were active in campus organizations and exercised leadership abilities. Members served as officers in such organizations as Panhellenic Hall and Council, AWS, AWS Judiciary Board, and RHETOR. Other members participated in CWENS, Union Cabinet, and queen contests. Adding spirit to athletic events were members as majorettes and cheerleaders.

Acacia encourages a CMS Mule to taste a victory beverage from the land of sky blue waters.

ACACIA

Acacia fraternity, a national social fraternity founded in 1904, began its ninth year on the Central Missouri State campus with its fall Calendar of Events. The calendar was also published winter and springs terms telling of future events.

Acacia social life started with the annual Pajama Festival all-school dance. The Black and Gold Formal followed with Miss Suzanne Green being crowned Acacia Sweetheart. The Mona Lisa Pizza Inn highlighted spring term activities.

Civic projects for the fraternity included a work day for the pledges, who helped restore the old courthouse; a Christmas party at the Johnson County Memorial Hospital; and an active part in the Greek Week work project. Campus projects included participation in all intramural sports, CEMO contest, varsity wrestling, and the UMOG contest.

Faculty sponsors for Acacia this year were Mr. Clarence Pearce, Mr. Olin Frazier, and Dr. Riley Pittman.

ALPHA KAPPA LAMBDA

1966-1967 marked the tenth year since the establishment of the Sigma chapter of Alpha Kappa Lambda on the Central Missouri State College campus. The Alpha Kappa Lambdas started the 1966-67 school year with a live rock-and-roll show featuring the band, "Goldielocks and the Three Bears."

The fall and winter season also found the AKL's excelling in the intramural sports contests. This year they set a perfect record of eight wins and no losses in intramural football.

AKL's were also active in many organizations on campus. Among them were members holding such honors as president of College Union Activities Board, members of SGA Executive Council, president of the Pick and Hammer Club, SGA vice president, member of the Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, secretary of the IFC, and members of Union Cabinet.

The chapter sponsors for AKL are Dr. Lyle Beaver, Mr. Fred-eric Bock, Dr. David Castaner, and Dr. James Urban.

"Kappa Phi spirit" dominates all frat activities — even the removal of a Homecoming billboard from VK field.

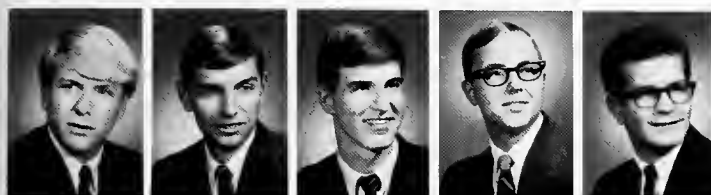

KAPPA PHI EPSILON

The Alpha chapter of Kappa Phi Epsilon, CMSC's newest fraternity, received its charter and became the ninth recognized social fraternity on campus on February 28, 1966. Being the ninth posed a housing problem, but the top floor of North Ellis Hall soon became the Kappa Phi headquarters. Twenty charter members of Kappa Phi Epsilon began this year with their annual Hell's Angels party and a fall rush program. The first pledge class initiated into the fraternity numbered fifteen, bringing the total membership to fifty.

Homecoming kept the fraternity busy building the pep rally bonfire, a stadium booster sign, and a downtown window decoration. They played an important part in the CARE drive by collecting $129.50, the highest fraternity donation received. Members of Kappa Phi Epsilon are active in SGA, Union committees, campus sports, the Jewish Students' Organization, and the RHETOR.

The fraternity sponsors are Mr. Todd Shirley, Mr. Arthur Norton, Dr. Vernon Wills, Dr. Joe Blackburn, and Mr. J. Marc DeKorte.

Influenced by Cartoon Carnival, the Lambda Chi's bring Sylvester the cat to life in their first-place house decoration.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

Lambda Chi Alpha's first full year on campus opened with the selection of 34 pledges from fall rush, who later erected a stone sign in front of the Fraternity Complex and the construction of a 30-foot, first-place Homecoming house decoration, "Sylvester Rings the Bulldogs' Bell." An open-house reception was held on Parents' Day following the game. The Lambda Chis sponsored their annual children's Christmas party and a tree-decorating party, in addition to an all-school dance in the Union, featuring the "Dalton Gang," and other house parties.

Lambda Chis were active in all aspects of campus life. Along with three members who held SGA offices, Lambda Chis were represented in IFC, varsity football, varsity wrestling, the College Union Cabinet, varsity debating, KCMW-FM, and THE STUDENT.

In April the colony was installed as a chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha, just over three years after the local Alpha Chi Epsilon was founded. Sponsors: Mr. Gregory Kunesh, Dr. Charles Porterfield, Mr. Robert Burger, and Mr. Chris Cornett.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

The Phi Sigs placed third in the house decoration contest for Homecoming, with "Brer Bear" and "Tar 'Em", in addition to winning second place in intramural football competition. Also, they held their annual Alumni Steak Fry and a Christmas party for underprivileged children. The Phi Sigs' Winter Formal was held at Pertle Springs Lodge. Blackouts' Widow's Ball preceded the thirty-second annual production of BLACKOUTS, with John Scribner as this year's director. Spring term brought the annual Phi Sig Outing at the Lake of the Ozarks.

Again this year, Phi Sigs held top campus offices: S. G. A. president and senators; presidents of IFC, "M" Club, and Public Relations Club; seven varsity football players; and Greek Choir director. Four members attended the National Conelave and returned with the National President's Expansion Trophy and a Special Citation for Improved Chapter Award.

Faculty sponsors are Dr. Hugh B. Williams, Coach Clarence Whiteman, Mr. GERAL Culp, and Mr. Adam Fisher.

Beetle Bailey and a Mule prepare to mow down the Bulldogs in the second-place house decoration.

SIGMA PI

Leadership and honors again characterized the men of Gamma Gamma chapter of Sigma Pi this year. The chapter won the national award for the best articles submitted to their fraternity quarterly for the second year in a row. Campus activities varied from winning a second-place trophy with their homecoming house decoration entry, "Beetle Bailey and the Burg beat the Bulldogs," to sponsoring Roscoe, the Sigma Pi-owned CMS mascot, who led the Mules to victory at all home games and several away games during the football season.

As well as winning sports and scholastic honors, individual members were active in SGA, Union Cabinet, IFC, and CMS Marching Band. Other campus activities included the Sigma Pi all-school dance, their Valentine candy sale, Cemost sales, and trips to the Higginsville school for retarded children. 1966 Sigma Pi Sweetheart, Miss Linda Roberts, was crowned at their Orchid Ball.

Faculty sponsors for Sigma Pi this year were Mr. Jack Russell, Dr. R. B. Flood, and Dr. Pat Smith.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

Alpha chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma began the 1966-67 school year of the CMS campus with their annual Harvest Ball. This was followed up with a concentrated fraternity effort on building a first prize float for the Homecoming parade. This year's float, Pepe' le Pue, followed the theme of Cartoon Carnival.

Individually, members were active not only in SGA, but also in athletic events such as the CMS swimming, gymnastics, baseball, football, and track teams.

The Springfield Torch Run, Sig Tau Steak dinner, Homecoming, Founder's Banquet, and the White Rose Formal were just a few of the other activities that kept the Sig Taus busy for the rest of the year. The Founder's Banquet was given in honor of Dr. J. P. Morris for his 25th year of continuous service to Alpha chapter. Miss Sue Clevenger was crowned their White Rose Queen.

Sponsors are Dr. Sam P. Hewitt, Dr. J. P. Morris, Dr. Frank Martin, Dr. C. B. Ford, and Mr. Jack Little.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

This has been a busy year for the men of Tau Kappa Epsilon. Fraternity activities included a Christmas party for underprivileged children, which was given in co-ordination with Sigma Sigma social sorority. Other social events included the Red Carnation Ball, Abe Lincoln Rock, and informal parties.

Active in many campus activities, individual members were chosen as president of the Union Cabinet, editor of THE STUDENT, and receiver of the George Charno Award.

As a community project this year, the Tekes washed the windows and cleaned the Warrensburg Post Office.

The Tekes won first in intramural volleyball and placed second in both swimming and wrestling along with a couple of thirds in football and cross-country. A total of thirteen members represented Tau Kappa Epsilon in varsity sports this year.

THETA CHI

The men of Theta Chi began the 1966-67 school year by sponsoring many campus activities. Among these were an all-school spaghetti supper, rush functions, and several parties. In January, Theta Chi held its "Winter Rampage," which featured Bob Kuban and the In Men. Theta Chi placed third in Homecoming float competition and presented their annual children's Christmas party.

Sponsors of the fraternity are Mr. John Byrd, Mr. Robert Boyd, Dr. Lin Welch, Mr. John Belshe, and Dr. Ronald McReynolds.

Theta Chi has been very strong in other aspects of campus life. They have taken firsts in intramural wrestling and swimming, and have done very well in other sports as well. Many Theta Chis serve on the Union Cabinet Committees and several are SGA senators. Along with this, several participate in varsity athletics. The most outstanding achievement of the brotherhood was the all-time national record amount of $6,218.15 collected for the annual UMOG contest. This was the fifteenth year Theta Chi has won the contest.

Sports at Central Missouri State exert an impression of oneness on the campus by linking diverse interests in a common ground of pride. Enthusiasm in athletics mounts as football practice gets underway and fans see the first kick-off of the season. Mule supporters, on their feet, raise the roof as over-time tension demands overt praise and reproach. An informal after-the-game dance in the Union provides an outlet for celebration or frustration. Sports is a way of life to the participant — recognition and reward; entertainment to the spectator — release and relaxation.

Large crowd turns out for Homecoming pep rally

"Give me one big FIGHT!" echoed through the tense air at most of this year's pep rallies as Mule fans were encouraged by the CMS cheerleaders to voice their support of the football team. In spite of several discouraging changes in the weather at the last minute, pep rallies were held for backing many of the home games, as well as for sending-off the team to play at away games.

In addition to the enthusiastic inspiration provided by the pep band, the coaches and captains of the offensive and defensive teams gave informative talks to the fans, and the cheerleaders led several yells. Members of the freshmen class and of Kappa Phi Epsilon fraternity helped to build the bonfire at the Homecoming pep rally. During the rally, a false football player, representing the opposing team, was thrown into the fire. The students' participation in these pep rallies and their support of the Mules became an important aspect of this year's improved school spirit.

Dr. Hal Yinger's enthusiasm in a pep talk encourages student support.

All-girl squad places third at SMU cheerleading camp

At the 1966 spring cheerleading try-outs held in Garrison Gym, Kay Green, Nancy Rice, Nancy Roncelli, Ann Halferty, Carolyn Montesano, Sandy Cloninger, and Sandy Shelton were chosen to represent CMS again this year. Rounding out a total of eight varsity cheerleaders was Shirley Curtice, in her first year on the squad.

The 1966-67 squad then prepared for a summer camp held at Southern Methodist University in August. They placed third — the only all-girl squad placing on the last day of competition.

Under the direction of Coach Woodruff, four additional boy cheerleaders were selected this fall. From the freshmen women, Marilyn Hancock and Vicki Davy were chosen as alternate cheerleaders.

Mules take third in MIAA with a new "pro-set" offense

Pigskin enthusiasm was on the upsurge this year as Coach Howard Mahanes began the season with a new coaching staff and some new players in compiling a 4-5 record in his first year at the helm. Coach Mahanes, previously at Ft. Scott Junior College, used a "pro-set" offense built around Juco All-American quarterback, Ken Brumley. Mahanes' coaching staff included Bob Patrick, a newcomer, also from Ft. Scott; Jerry Boyce, an All-American halfback for CMS in 1960; and Roger Denker, last season's line coach.

Other new faces to the squad were Jim Morton, wingback; Larry Johnson, halfback, Bill McCann, defensive back; Tom Carraway, center; Bruce Black, guard; Bob Folsom and Jim Urezyk, a pair of big tackles; Rich Haynes, defensive lineman; Rick Carlson, split end; Mickey Picattaggio, tight end; and a couple of outstanding freshmen, Don Lang, at safety, and John Richison, at defensive end. John Repp, Mules veteran, shared the quarterback duties with Brumley in guiding the Mules to a third place in the MIAA, their highest conference standing since the 1962 season.

Mules turn on power in defeating Washburn 38-7

After a disappointing loss in the opener, 20-18, to Pittsburg, the CMS Mules bounced back to trounce Washburn 38-7. These 38 points were the most the crimson and black had placed on the scoreboard in one game since 1961 against Maryville.

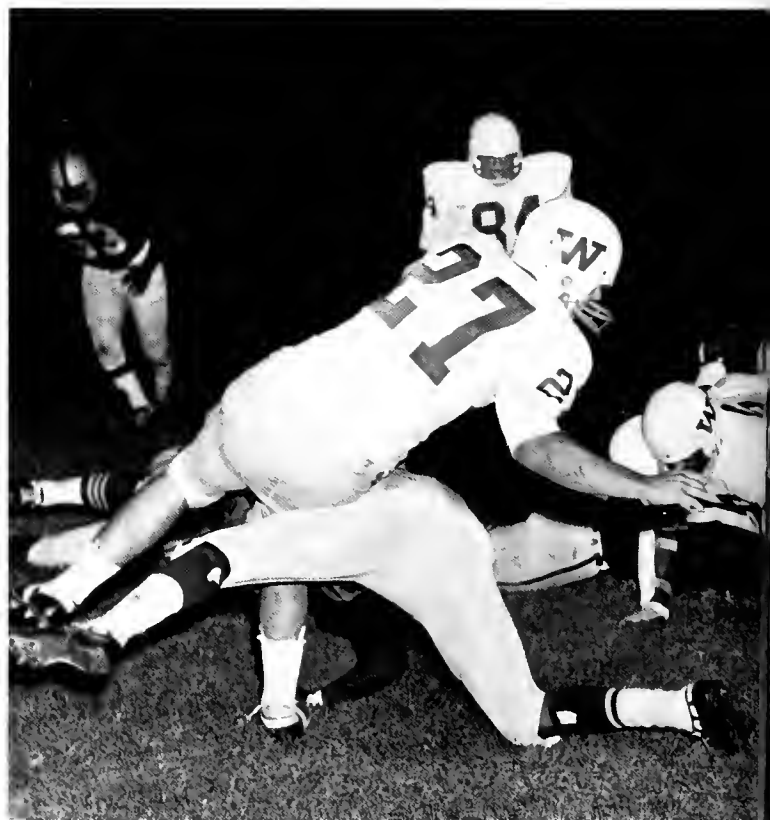

Quarterback, Ken Brumley, led the Mule scorers with 15 points in two touchdown runs, one for 15 yards and the other for two yards, and a 30-yard field goal. Brumley also connected on a scoring pass to flyweight wingback, Jim Morton, covering 35 yards. Veteran quarterback, John Repp, scored a fourth quarter T.D. on a five yard keeper. Repp came back with 38 seconds left in the game to hit split end Rick Carlson with a 19-yard scoring aerial. Larry Johnson, halfback, rounded out the scoring by connecting on five of five conversion attempts.

Don Lang defends an Ichabod pass.

Coach Mahanes ponders the effect of "pro-set" on Ichabods.

Rick Carlson grabs a 19-yard scoring pass from quarterback John Repp.

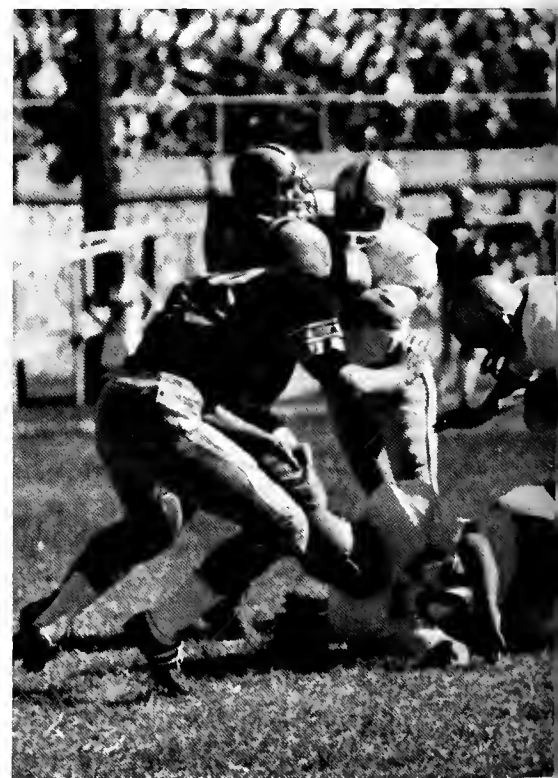

Safety, Bill Green picks up important yardage after intercepting a Hornet pass. Steve Witkowski and Emery Trawick provide interference for the run-back.

Central Missouri State downs Emporia 23-14

Defensive linemen, Rich Haynes and John Richison, were the Mule stars in the CMS victory over the Emporia State Hornets, 23-14, at Emporia. Haynes, CMS's tough "noseman," picked up a loose Hornet fumble in the second quarter and rambled 35 yards for the Mules second score of the game. Richison, the big freshman end, with 20 seconds left in the contest, also recovered a fumble and reeled off a 29-yard touchdown to sew up the contest.

Ken Brumley, quarterback, scored the first time the Mules had the ball with a one-yard keeper. Larry Johnson's conversion attempt was blocked — the only one he missed in the entire season. Brumley put the Mules ahead at the intermission, 16-7, with a 35-yard field goal, set up by line-backer Bill Leonard's pass-interception with 12 seconds left. Haynes and Richison touchdowns rounded out the Mule scoring.

Bruce Black, a 210-pound guard, intercepted a Hornet pass and ran 60 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter, only to have it called back because of a personal foul. The Mules were plagued by penalties as they were assessed 165 yards worth, ten for 15 yards apiece.

Bruce Black takes off with a 60-yard pass interception as Bill Leonard and Emory Trawick are ready to protect.

Ken Brumley carries on a keeper as Terry Santone, Bruce Black, and Charlie Williams block.

The coaching staff congratulates Coach Mahanes on a thrilling victory.

Coach Norm Short sparks Mule cagers to a 12-11 mark

New head cage coach Norman Short and assistant Leroy Hunt helped CMS produce a 12-11 seasonal mark and a fourth place in the MIAA conference this year. Coach Short, who came to CMS from Washburn University in Kansas, brought a new "run-and-gun" offense to the Warrensburg campus. Coach Hunt, a very productive high school coach at Warrensburg High, saw college coaching action for the first time in his career.

Calvin Pettit, 6'5" Mule forward, led the team in almost every department. Pettit set a new school mark in rebounding for one season, 308; breaking all-time CMS great Bud Vallino's mark of 307. Pettit also was the Mule's top point producer with an average of 20.8 both seasonal and in the conference. Veteran guard, Ron Mooney, was the Mules' second leading scorer averaging 15.4 overall and 17.6 in the MIAA. Rounding out the leading scorers on the squad were guards Sylvester Mitchell and Dave Wells averaging 11.3 and 10.2 for the season. Big men underneath the basket for CMS were Warren Maurer and Jim Perry, hauling in 114 and 103 caroms apiece for the year.

The Pan American tournament was the big event for the Mule cagers this season. The Mules placed seventh against some of the toughest competition in the southwest. Pettit was named to the all-tournament team, after setting a new scoring mark of 34 points in one contest.

Calvin Pettit shoots a reverse lay-up against the Ottawa Braves in 1967 season opener.

Mules drop Ottawa Braves by 24 point margin

Sylvester Mitchell looks for an opening in the Braves defense.

CMS guard, Sylvester Mitchell, gunned in 14 points in five minutes of play to lead a Mule rally and down Ottawa University 98-74, in the season roundball opener, December 1.

With Mitchell's scoring spree, CMS amassed a halftime lead of 56-39. The scoring machine of Coach Short's Mules was very effective, but CMS rebounders held only a 40-39 margin in that department. Tony Verdi, of the Braves, led all scorers with 29 points. Mitchell and Ron Mooney accounted for the Mules high of 24 tallies apiece; followed by Calvin Pettit with 14.

Dave Wells, junior guard, guns a pass over an excited Ottawa defender.

Late surge by Pittsburg fails as Mules win 65-60

Calvin Pettit, Mule wonderboy, ripped the nets for 26 points and hauled down 16 rebounds to aid CMS to a 65-60 victory over Pittsburg State, January 25, in Garrison Gym.

A 29-29 contest at halftime, the Mules steadily pulled away only to have the Gorillas come within two points with six minutes left in the contest. Pettit and Sylvester Mitchell gunned in seven straight points to clinch the win. Besides Pettit's 26 points, Mitchell contributed 17. Dave Niegsch and Don Diggs each had 16 for the Gorillas.

Dave Wells and Calvin Pettit box in a Gorilla player.

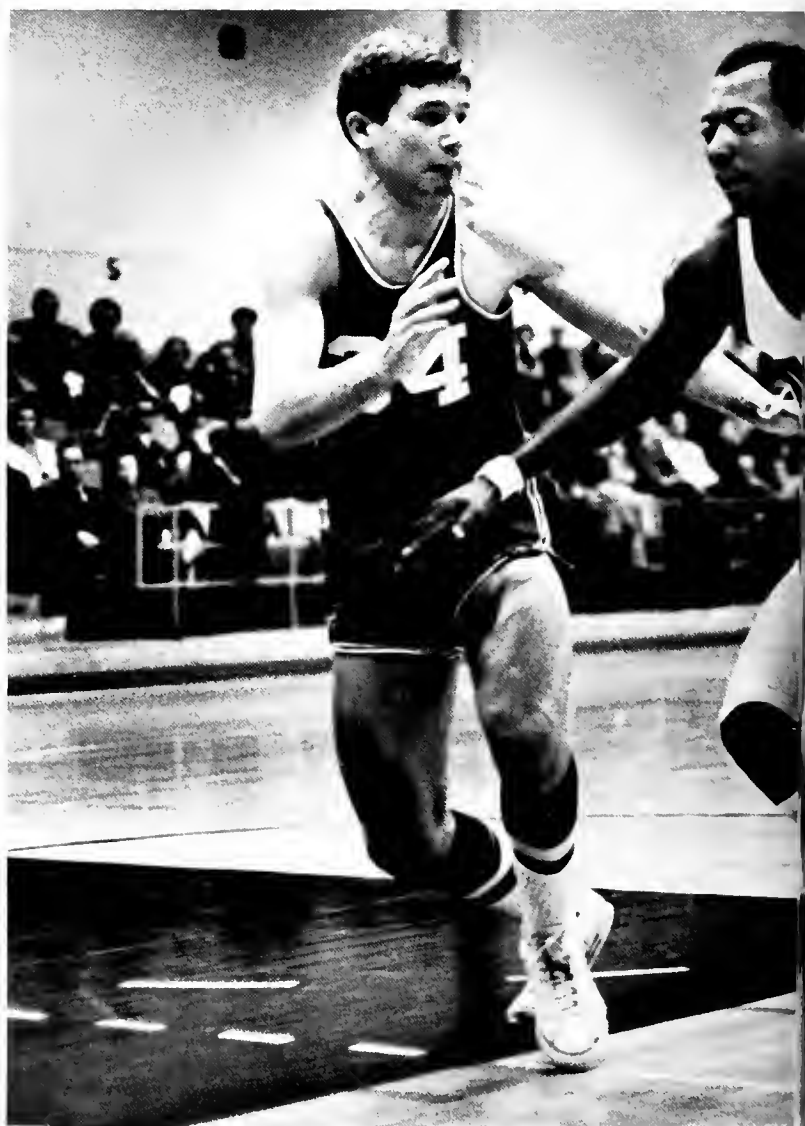

Ron Mooney looks for a way out of trouble against Bulldogs.

Mules win conference game 67-52 from Northeast State

Effective rebounding and good defensive play aided the Mules to take their second conference victory of the season downing the Northeast Missouri State Bulldogs, 67-52, at home on February 6.

Most of the rebounding and defensive credit went to Calvin Pettit, Warren Maurer, and Fed Rigney, according to Head Coach Norm Short. The Mules trailed early in the contest but came back strong to take a commanding 31-24 intermission lead. Pettit led the scoring attack with 28 tallies. Mike McPherson led the Bulldogs with 18 points.

Mules take MIAA championship

Despite a disappointing 3-7 non-conference record, the CMS Mules rallied in conference play to post an overall 13-12 record for the 1966 season.

The Mules won the northern division of the MIAA conference with a 10-15 record. Then, behind coach Bob Tompkins, the Mules swept the best two out of three in the MIAA playoffs to win the championship from the southern division winner, Cape Girardeau.

Bill Green stirs up the dirt as he slides safely into third in the first game of the MIAA playoff with Cape Girardeau.

Pitching by Mule hurlers is strong during play-offs

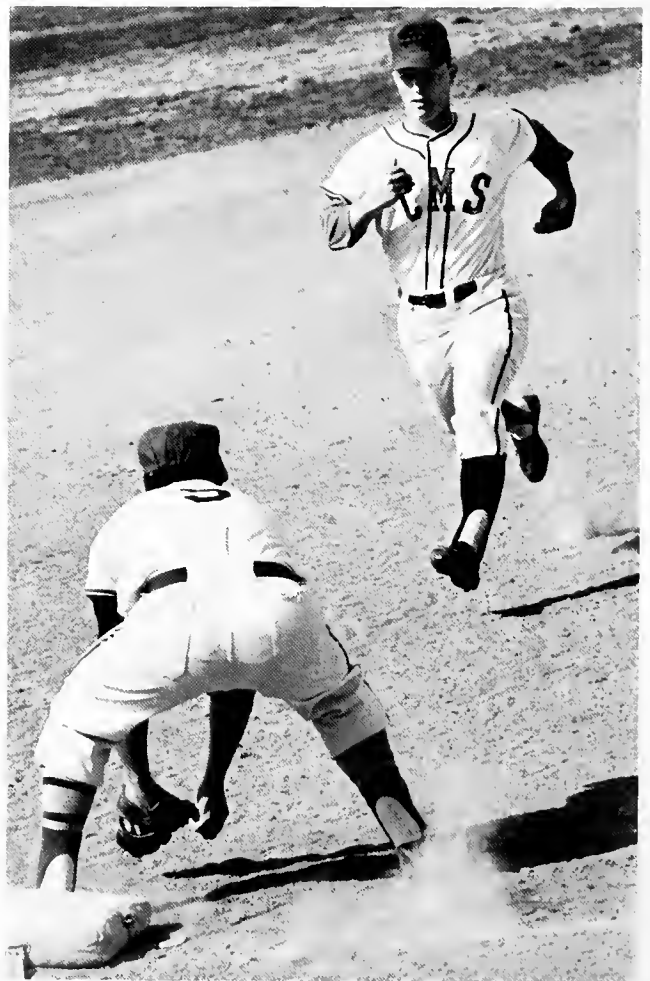

Pitching by Ron Zuber, Dave Ordway, and Carl Black contributed greatly to the Mules overall 15-12 season record. Ron Zuber posted a 5-2 mark with a 1.43 E.R.A. which included a 3-1 win of the first game against Cape Girardeau in the MIAA play-off. Zuber ranked fifth in the nation's small colleges in strikeouts per innings. Dave Ordway boasted a 3-0 season mark with a 2.31 E.R.A. Ordway turned in a fine performance in his third win to beat Cape Girardeau 4-1 in the second game of the MIAA play-off. Carl Black, a fine reliever, finished his college career with a 2-2 record and a 1.90 E.R.A. At the end of the season, Black was drafted by the New York Yankees.

Next season's prospects up; lettermen to return

John Roe

Coach Cecil Woodruff in his first year guided the CMS gymnasts to a 1-8 season record. The inexperienced CMS squad was paced by 12 lettermen which showed much improvement at the season's climax as they almost upset Kansas State. Youth, talent, and 10 returning lettermen promise a bright future for 1968.

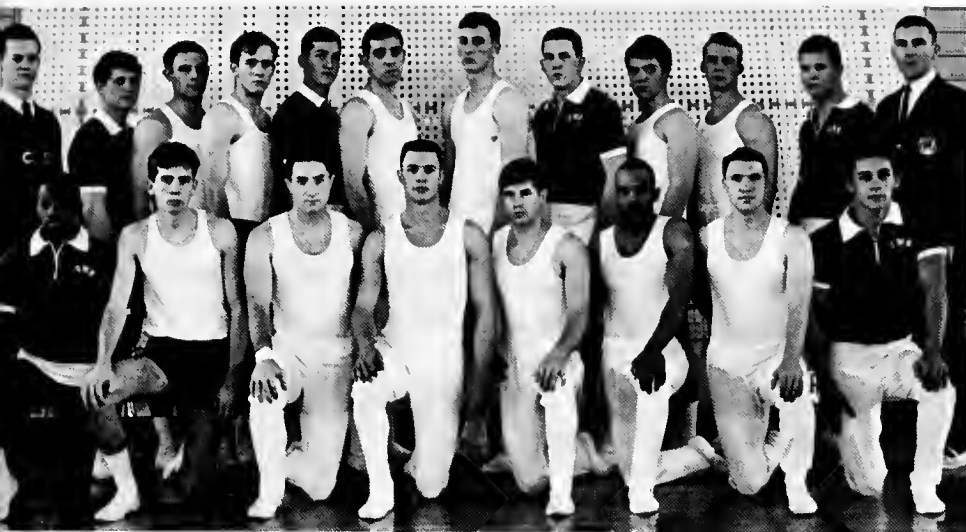

Senior co-captains Jim Shaffar and John Roe, Most Valuable Player, and juniors Frank Schaefer, still-rings specialist, and Bob Settles, Most Improved Gymnast, formed the nucleus for the Mules scoring attack. High point honors go to sophomore Chuck Hanna, free exercise, for his outstanding performances during the season. Chuck's classmates Terry Lacey, free exercise, and Bob Turner, vaulting, also earned letters. Four freshmen seeing action were Chris Fender, John Adams, Stan Green on the Trampoline, and Rick Blowers on the parallel bars.

Mules capture MIAA conference championship for second consecutive year

"The best season I've had," recalled coach Tom Hairabedian as his CMS tankmen highlighted a winning 6-6 season by capturing their second straight MIAA swimming crown. The Mules took the title with 77 points followed by Maryville, Cape Girardeau and Springfield.

Freshman Bob Fehrman broke conference and school records in the 100 and 200-yard backstroke. Junior Dave Whitaker broke conference, school and pool records in the 100 and 200-yard butterfly. Santo Milosevich, another freshman, set a conference record in the 50-yard freestyle.

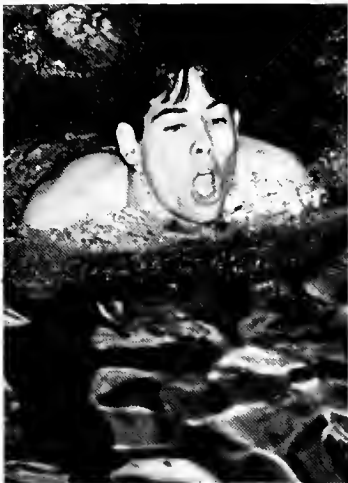

Fehrman, Whitaker, Milosevich, and Richard Hopkins set conference, school, and pool records in the 400-yard medley relay; while Harry Edelman dived for his second straight conference crown.

Fourth in MIAA conference CMS posts 3-7 season record

Coach Earl Keth led the 1966 CMS golf team to a 3-7 record and a 4th place in the MIAA tournament at Springfield. The team placed 6th in an Invitational held earlier at Springfield. Six lettermen, including two seniors, Ron Jesse and Chuck Aldridge and four juniors, Steve Hopkins, Stan Fergusson, Don Thompson, and Tim Sajna composed the Mule team which upset the Rolla Miners, who went on to win the MIAA conference championship. Gary Hannah, Ronald Puls, and Tom Austin offered valuable assistance playing as alternates throughout the season.

Four returning lettermen including junior Steve Hopkins, the number one golfer on the team, will be teeing off for CMS as they open their '67 season.

CMS tennis team closes season with a 5-6 record

Coach Keith Lawrence's tennis team closed the season with a 5-6 season record. Three juniors, Bruce Nelson, Bill Cook, and Jack Taylor, set the pace for CMS as they fought tough conference foes, Northeast Missouri State and Southwest Missouri State, and placed fifth in the MIAA tournament which was held at Springfield.

Junior Bruce Nelson was the number-one man on the team with a 7-3 record. Supporting Bruce were juniors Bill Cook and Jack Taylor with 9-2 and 7-3 marks respectively. James Larue, in his freshman year at CMS, ended the season with a 3-5 mark. Tom Grow, senior, finished his collegiate tennis career with a 2-9 mark.

Looking forward to next season, the new coach, Duane Sterling, who will be guiding the team, is optimistic in predicting the outcome of the 1967 conference race.

Mules place fifteenth at NCAA national meet

CMS cindermen climaxed an outstanding season by placing third in the MIAA Conference, third in the NCAA Regionals, and 15th in a field of 75 colleges and universities at the NCAA National held in Chicago, Illinois. The trackmen set five school records: the shuttle relay, mile relay, two-mile relay, high-jump, and javelin.

Keith Browne's javelin throwing highlighted the track season by breaking three records and becoming CMS's first NCAA Champion with a 222' 5 1/2" throw. Browne's accomplishments also include a new school and meet record of 226' 8 1/2" at the Emporia State Relays and a NCAA Midwest Regional record of 219' 6 1/2".

Four Mules won Conference Championships at the MIAA outdoor meet. Browne broke the conference record with a 224' 9 1/2" javelin throw; Terry Cotter set a new mark with a 1:53.6 run in the 880-yard dash; Terry Galloway took the 120-yard high hurdles with a 15.0 run; Mark Pittman placed first in the triple jump with a 46' 1/2" jump and also placed fifth in the same event at the NCAA.

The shuttle hurdle relay team composed of Ed Ratledge, Byron Russell, Terry Galloway, and Lyle Anderson rounded out the record breakers with a new school record of 64.6 at the Southwest Missouri State Relays.

CMS distance runners raced to a third place in MIAA Conference. The distance men placed eighth in a field of 16 colleges at the Southwest Missouri State Invitionals which rounded out one of the finest Cross Country seasons at CMS.

Mule wrestlers struggle hard in logging 9-6 record this year

Mule wrestlers battled extra hard this season to post a winning 9-6 record in dual meets. In pre-season tournaments, CMS placed second in both the Graceland Tournament and Illinois State Quadrangle. Post-season action found the Mules competing in the MIAA conference meet at Maryville and the NCAA College Division at Wilkes-Barry, Pennsylvania.

Injuries seemed to be the most decisive opponent of Coach Roger Denker's squad this year. Senior wrestlers, Jim Earle at 115 pounds and Buzz Matson in the 152-pound class, were lost for a good part of the season; and 167-pound junior, Reg Coates, missed the last few matches. Fine performances were turned in by Bill Graham, a 145-pound junior, and freshmen Pete Couppleditch at 123 pounds and Tom Coil in the 160-pound class.

Inevitable mechanisms — the student, the professor, the classroom — reinforce Central Missouri State's "Education for Service." Studying, seeking truth, and questioning life itself are the processes by which the individual increases his knowledge. The instructor relays a vast amount of information from his reservoir of experience through insightful lectures. Classroom situations provide an interpretive atmosphere for learning. A primary source of personal learning is discussion in the Union. Thus, life is magnified through these continual molding processes.

ACADEMICS

Women's hockey team boasts an undefeated '66-'67 record

Women's physical education department offers many opportunities for the physical, mental, emotional, and social development of women students. These factors are developed through instruction in individual and dual sports, team sports, aquatics, rhythms, and gymnastics.

Intramural and extramural programs provide tournaments and sports days in outside as well as inside activities, including field hockey, softball, tennis, golf, archery, badminton, volleyball, basketball, and bowling. One example of this is the CMS undefeated girls' hockey team.

Precision, steadiness of aim, and proper stance bring perfection.

Orchesis, Dolphins show PE skills to the public eye

Women students participating in physical education classes often widen their interest through an active participation in organizations such as Orchesis and Dolphins. This past year, Orchesis, the dance club, presented its annual Christmas program and spring dance recital. Meanwhile, synchronized swimming enthusiasts participated in the Dolphin Swim Club, which planned all year for "A Night with Mancini." Two members of this organization had the distinction of being a state champion and a national gold medal winner in synchronized swimming. Other recognitions were received by the swim team, which placed third at Sports Day held at Missouri University.

An honorary fraternity for physical education majors, Delta Psi Kappa, also helps to further an interest among future teachers and coaches.

A new service group on the campus, the Grapplettes, were present at all CMS home wrestling matches to keep score and present trophies.

Artist + tools + models + imagination + skill = ART

Her clay model acts as a model for a wooden sculpture she will create later.

The art department at CMS offers programs in fine arts, art education, advertising and commercial art, and interior design and decoration.

Nine special studios for design, drawing, painting, kiln and glazing, pottery, metal work, sculpture, weaving, graphics, printmaking, and commercial art are located in modern Noel B. Grinstead Hall. An air-conditioned art theatre equipped with automatic projectors provides an effective learning situation for the study of history and appreciation of art. Students also have access to a departmental fine arts library containing several hundred books and portfolios.

Another feature of the art department is an art gallery where traveling exhibits are displayed. This year, exhibits from the San Francisco Art Institute, the Smithsonian Institute, and the Ferdinand Roten Galleries and a faculty art show were featured in the gallery.

Home Economic students practice homemaking arts

Located in the Grinstead Building, the home economics department is well equipped with instructional facilities, including special laboratories for foods, textiles, clothing, equipment, and home nursing. Excellent classrooms and a delightful living-dining area are used for meal service and teas.

Home economics students reside in Richards Hall, the home management house, for one term. Here they obtain practical experience in the knowledge they have gained through their home economics courses.

Students enrolling in home economics have a choice of five major programs, including vocational home economics, textiles and clothing, dietetics, foods and nutrition, and, a new addition, child development.

In connection with this department, Colhecon is the nationally-affiliated home economics club which affords an opportunity for student leadership and development. Kappa Omicron Phi is the national professional honorary home economics fraternity.

An industrial process, arc welding may fascinate both welders and onlookers.

Industrial Technology offers additional courses

CMS's industrial arts and technology department offers opportunities in industrial arts and technology for positions in industry. For teaching, a student may select one of several areas of specialization or a general industrial arts major; in the technical field, a two-year or four-year degree program may be pursued.

In the fall of this year, a two-year program in industrial design drafting was made available to students. And in the fall of 1967, two more programs, heating and air-conditioning and building construction technology, will be added.

Production of TV programs teaches the latest techniques

In the past year and a half much progress has been made in providing the campus with an Instructional Resources Center. The center is equipped with television sets which are used in teaching history and psychology courses. Another facility made available was the Television Observation Center which is set up in the Central Elementary School and is used by Teacher Education and Psychology majors. The center is also equipped with a video-tape machine and a wave-form monitor, both of which play important roles in television production.

Social science division adopts instructional TV

The social science division includes six departments — economics, geography, history, law enforcement, political science, and sociology. In 1965-66, the division pioneered the use of instructional television in early and modern world classes. This year, along with other divisions, the social science division is using ITV for a new course, American and the Modern World I and II.

Democratic society classes, taught by Dr. Donald Powell, have featured the visits of ambassadors from the Arab world and the Middle East and officials from the State Department. The law enforcement department sponsored a field trip to the State Penitentiary at Jefferson City and to Fulton State Hospital #1. This department, located in the Coleman House, has a laboratory and a small professional library. Other activities of the division include excavation of an Indian mound by the Archaeology Club and restoration of the old Johnson County Courthouse under the direction of Dr. Roy Stubbs.

Speech Pathology Clinic expands therapy programs

As one of the five areas of the department of speech, the speech and hearing clinic provides individual or group therapy to both children and adults who have communication problems.

Through 30-minute sessions on disorders such as stuttering, cleft palate, and delayed speech and language development, experience is gained by both undergraduates and graduates who are majoring in speech pathology and who are training to become speech clinicians.

All therapy is under the supervision of senior staff members who hold clinical certification by American Speech and Hearing Association in Speech Pathology and/or Audiology.

At least 275 hours of case therapy are required in a clinician's training.

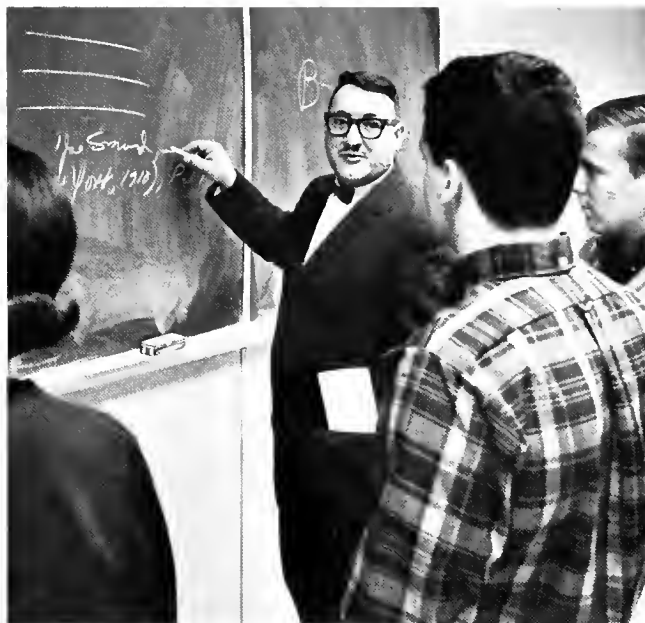

The hearing clinic provides audiometric testing to members of the student body and to community residents.

English Department uses new experimental methods

Language and literature departments are now housed in air-conditioned Wood-Martin Hall. One of the outstanding facilities of the department is the modern foreign language laboratory.

This year the English department has done experimental work in variety of class size with some freshmen English classes. One day per week 150 students met for lecture. This group was also divided into classes of 25 for discussions; and each student spent ten minutes in conference with an instructor during the week.

Activities of the department include sponsoring the appearance of the National Shakespeare Company and producing "The American Cousin."

State and federal funds finance new science classroom building

The ever-expanding field of science is about to make a noticeable advancement in the facilities offered by the science department here on the CMS campus. Chemistry, biology, earth science, and physics will expand, each having approximately ten laboratories, as the new science building becomes a reality.

Fall of 1966 saw the thirty-third major building on campus begin to take form just north of the College Union. The $3,000,000 science classroom building will provide facilities such as 23 classrooms, 56 offices, 36 laboratories, a visual aids room, a science library, numerous storage rooms, and closed circuit T.V. facilities throughout the building. A special feature will be the amphitheatre-type multi-purpose auditorium which will seat approximately 550 persons.

Furnishing 149,000 square feet of floor space, the four-story structure, which is the second major new classroom building constructed in three years, will be open for student use in the fall of 1967.

New building facilitates modern needs of students

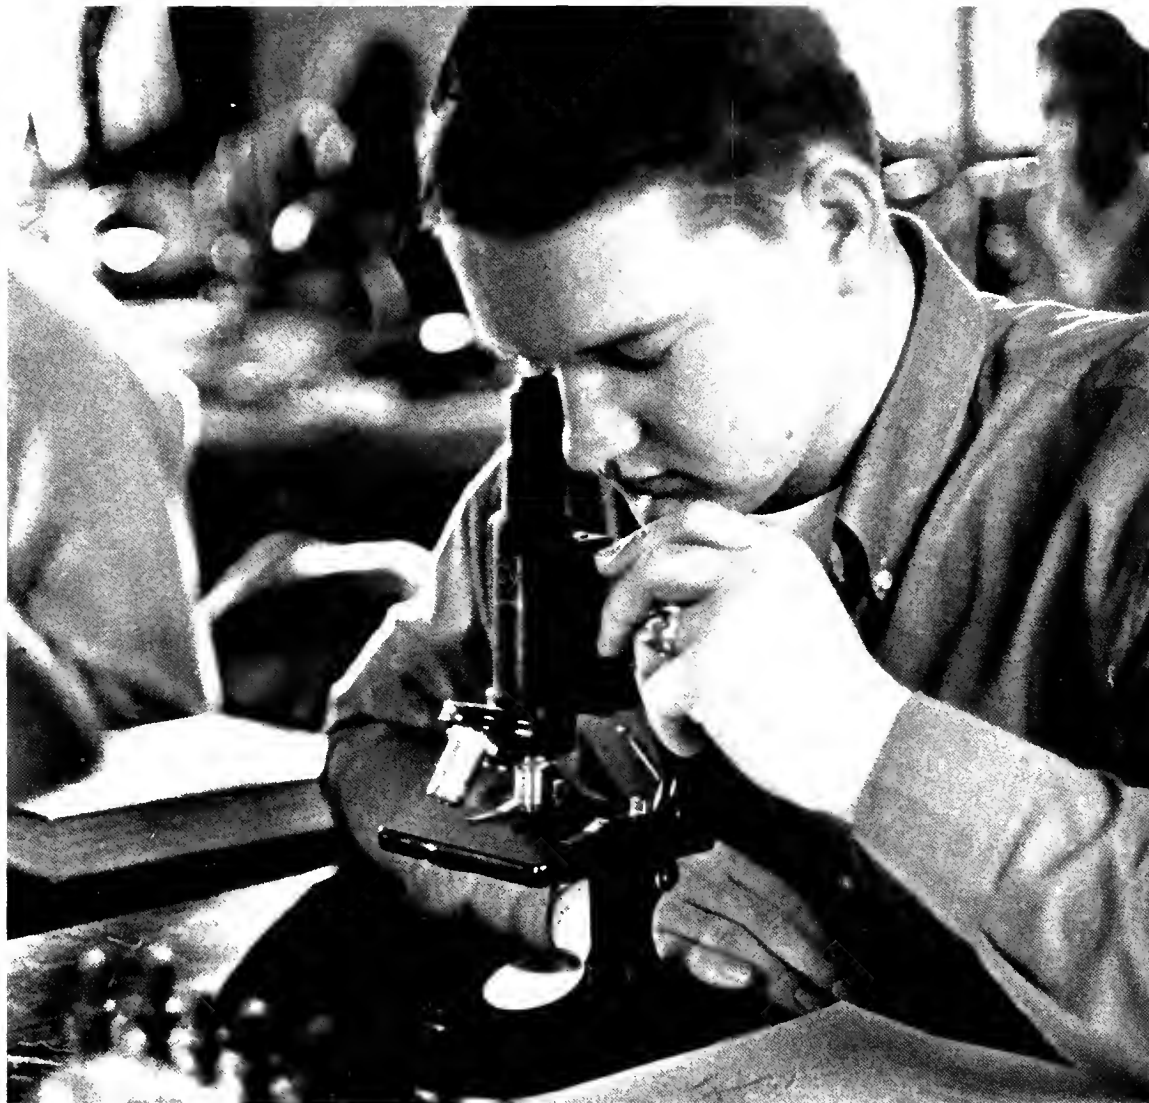

CMS's science department offers basic preparations for pre-professional training, as well as teacher education in such areas as biology, botany, zoology, chemistry, and physics.

The chemistry division provides a thorough grounding for persons interested in many specialized areas such as medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, public health work, agriculture, and air and water pollution control. The highly-qualified staff, nearly all of whom hold an earned doctoral degree, instruct small classes for the purpose of permitting closer student-faculty relationships.

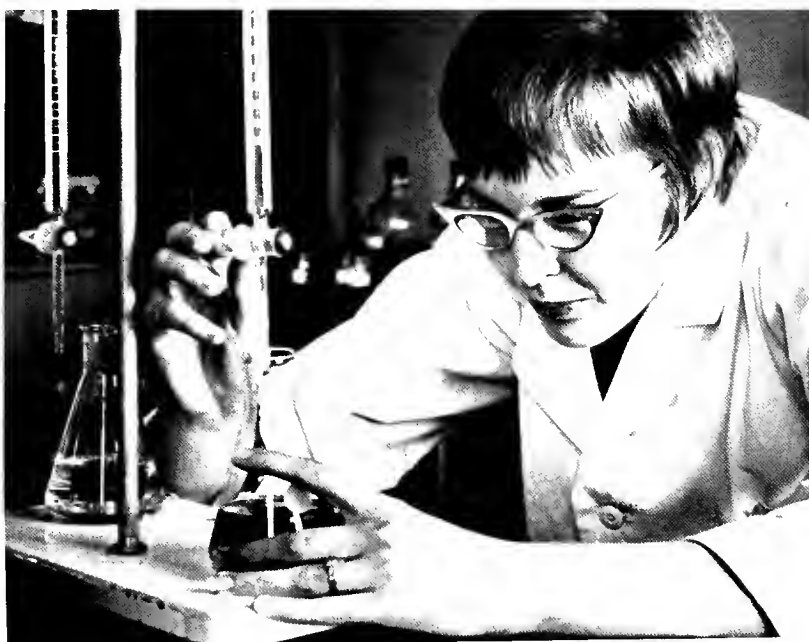

Preparation for areas such as medical science, research, conservation, and teaching is offered through several degrees and programs of the biology division. Three student organizations sponsored by the biology department to further the students' interests are Science Club, Outing Club, and Beta Beta Beta Honorary.

Residence Center expands to meet increased enrollment

Since 1959, Central Missouri State College's Residence Center in Independence, Missouri, has been meeting the needs of many in that area who, for various reasons, are not able to go away to school. It is located on 24 Highway adjacent to the Harry S. Truman Library. Classes meet daily from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and nightly at 6:00 p.m. and 8:15 p.m. Not only does the residence center offer credits for undergraduates, with an extensive program for freshmen and sophomores, but also for graduate students as well.

Students attend classes in a modern, air-conditioned building and use the growing library facilities offered at the center. The second floor contains four general classrooms and one arts and crafts room. The special feature, a student union area, occupies the first floor. It provides space for dances and plays to be held as well as a place to relax or eat lunch.

With an approximate 1400-student enrollment, the residence center's activities are ever-expanding. For example, this year's S.G.A. won a second-place trophy on their float which was entered in the Independence Halloween parade.

All Warrensburg campus facilities are available to the residence center students.

Dr. John Smith assumed the position of director in July.

A "book brigade" was used to transfer the library into the new addition.

Idea of a test file initiated by student governing body

The governing body of the CMS campus is the Student Government Association. Their purpose is to promote student interest for the advancement of student welfare and promotion of academic excellence, within the college. The SGA is the primary channel of communication between the administration, faculty, and student body.

This year they sponsored such activities as the Serendipity Singers' Concert, CEMO popularity contest, and the Rhetor Ball. In addition to initiating a test file idea and helping with the oral polio vaccine drive, the SGA restored the Student Traffic Court and sent two representatives to the Associated Student Governments conferences.

The members and officers are elected by the students. The officers this year are: Bob Johnson, president; Paul Munson, vice-president; and Bob Neely, speaker of the house.

Association of Women Students sponsors Best-Dressed Girl of '67

The Association of Women Students is the organization of all Central Missouri State College women. It formulates policies pertaining to women and provides a framework for communication among the women and with the college community.

AWS also provides programs of special interest. The Christmas door decoration contest is under the guidance of special committee of AWS. Open houses and teas are also under the direction of AWS; however, the officers of each dorm are in charge.

In the AWS-sponsored fashion show, CMS's Best-Dressed Girl was selected from a field of 24 candidates. The winner of the contest has the opportunity to compete in the national contest sponsored by Glamour Magazine. Mrs. Hearnes, Missouri's first lady, was the guest speaker at this year's contest. For the first time, this year's best-dressed girl was judged wholly by the audience.

Board, Cabinet function to Educate for Service

Governing body at Central Missouri State College is the Board of Regents. The bipartisan board consists of six members, appointed by Warren E. Hearnes, governor of Missouri, three of which are from each major political party. Each member serves a six-year term and is eligible for reappointment.

The Commissioner of Education is the ex officio member, and the president of the college serves as the chief executive officer. The board meets monthly, or more frequently if necessary.

As of fall, 1966, the members were: Leland Culp, Byron Constance, Joe Herndon, Mrs. Sinclair Gottlieb, John Ryan, W. L. Simpson, and President Warren C. Lovinger.

The Administrative Cabinet advises President Lovinger: Dr. Merville Meverden, Dr. Tom Edmunds, Dr. Harold Young, Dean Irvin Peters.

Serving the students of CMS, the college administrative officers strive to assist and improve the many facets of college life. The Administrative Cabinet, a policy-recommending body, is responsible for discussing administrative problems and making recommendations on them.

Warren C. Lovinger, president of the college, serves as the presiding officer and Dr. Tom Edmunds, assistant to the president, serves as a secretary.

Those serving the students of CMS in an administrative capacity are: Irvin L. Peters, Dean of Administration; Dr. D.W. Tieszen, Dean of Instruction; Dr. W.O. Hampton, Dean of Student Personnel; Dr. Reid Hemphill, Director of Graduate Studies; Dr. Marion S. Schott, Dean of Teacher Education; Dr. Harold L. Campus Administrators keep CMS functioning

Campus administrators each do their part toward making the CMS campus activities run smoothly. For example, Dean Irvin L. Peters, Dean of Administration, acts as an assistant to the President and oversees all campus building projects and the printing of publicity brochures. Dean D.W. Tieszen, fulfills his obligation as Dean of Instruction in co-ordinating the work of the academic divisions and interviewing prospective campus instructors. Dr. Harold Young, Director of Field Services, aids in public relations and obtaining special campus entertainment. Maintenance of buildings and grounds is directed by Dr. Merville Meverden, Director of the Physical Plant.

Dr. W. O. Hampton, Dean of Student Personnel, is over all advisers and the Deans of Men and Women, handling student activities and problems. Dr. Reid Hemphill, Dean of Graduate School, administers graduate studies. Dr. Marion S. Schott, Dean of Teacher Education, manages the student teaching program.

Dr. Irl Gladfelter, Director of Placement and Alumni, takes time out from a busy schedule.
